

PUBLIC GENERAL LAW.

2561

	Page.
Mode of recovering money received for the use of the poor—1794, ch. 53, sec. 3,	308
Money to be transmitted by collectors where bridges are built over waters dividing two or more counties—1794, ch. 53, sec. 6,	309
The collectors entitled, (on the sale of any goods or chattels to enforce payment,) to the same fees as are established by law on the service of executions—1794, ch. 53, sec. 7,	310
Where the collectors of county taxes can find no personal property liable for the payment of such taxes on land chargeable therewith, they are to return lists of such land, with the amount due thereon, and the names of the persons, to the commissioners of the tax—1797, ch. 90, sec. 1,	351
On neglect to return such lists, if required in writing, they shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 100 dollars, to be deducted from their commission—1797, ch. 90, sec. 2,	352
The commissioners directed to give notice that such lands, or a part thereof, will be sold, unless the taxes are paid to the collectors within thirty days from the publication—1797, ch. 90, sec. 3,	352
If payment is not made, they shall direct the collector to make sale, and make a return thereof in the manner therein mentioned, for the payment of such taxes—1797, ch. 90, sec. 4, 5,	352
Act not to extend to Allegany county—1797, ch. 90, sec. 7,	353
In suits on collectors' bonds, the persons' names for whose use they are instituted, to be endorsed, and they to be liable for the costs—1794, ch. 54, sec. 10,	314
No collector of the county taxes, or deputy collector, nor any person for them, shall purchase any claim, &c. which any person may have against the county for which he is collector—1819, ch. 135, sec. 1,	713
Any collector violating this law liable on conviction to a fine of fifty dollars—1819, ch. 135, sec. 2,	713
Where the sheriff or collector of the tax in any county, hath failed or shall hereafter fail to make his collection within the time limited by law, the judges of the county court may, on application of such sheriff or collector, or his executors, &c. allow him further time to make his collection—1820, ch. 48, sec. 1,	727
The securities of such sheriff or collector may also make a similar application—1820, ch. 48, sec. 2,	727
Any judge of the county court may after the passage of this act, grant such application, to be of force until the next term of the county court—1820, ch. 48, sec. 3,	728
Any judge of the county courts in the recess of the court to exercise every power vested in the judges of the county courts by the act for the relief of the sheriffs and collectors of the several counties in the state—1821, ch. 135,	768
Before any personal property shall be seized, &c. by any collector of the county assessment, the collector shall deliver to the person, or leave at his abode, a particular account of the property, the rate and the amount—1800, ch. 85,	434