

	Page.
The clerk so recording to have the same fees as for similar services, and not bound to record the deed, &c. till the fees are secured—1816, ch. 119, sec. 2, . . . . .	641
No deed of conveyance shall be good and available in law, unless the same be recorded in the records of the county court where the lands, &c. do lie, within the time required by law—1818, ch. 104, . . . . .	691
The mayor of the city of Annapolis may take the acknowledgment of any deed or instrument of writing, as fully as if taken by any one or two justices of the peace of Anne Arundel county—1818, ch. 194, sec. 12. . . . .
Deeds acknowledged before the chief judge, or an associate judge of any judicial district, to have the same effect as if acknowledged before the chief judge, or an associate judge of the judicial district where the lands lie or the grantors reside—1820, ch. 172, . . . . .	736
Of corporations to be acknowledged by attorney appointed under seal of the corporation—1821, ch. 226, . . . . .	776
Acknowledgments of conveyances before justices, specially assigned for the city of Baltimore, to have the same effect as if taken before justices of Baltimore county—1821, ch. 249, sec. 6. . . . .
Where the time limited for recording deeds, &c. shall expire in the interval between the death of one clerk and the appointment of another, it shall be the duty of the succeeding clerk to make a special endorsement on the said deeds, &c. and to record the same—1822, ch. 104, . . . . .	781
Deeds so recorded to have the same force and effect as if recorded within the time limited by law—1822, ch. 104, . . . . .	781
The construction of mortgages limited—1825, ch. 50, . . . . .	825
See Mortgages.
Provisions for the acknowledgment of deeds of lands lying within this state, where the grantor shall be without the state, but within the United States—1825, ch. 58, sec. 1, . . . . .	826
Same where any feme covert shall be a party to the deed, or shall only be relinquishing her right of dower—1825, ch. 58, sec. 2, . . . . .	826
Clerks of the counties directed to record deeds so acknowledged—1825, ch. 58, sec. 3, . . . . .	826
Deeds of conveyances of the same lands, lying in this state, to have the preference according to the times of their recording respectively, provided the deeds so to be preferred, are made bona fide, and upon good and valuable consideration, and not to prejudice the rights of bona fide purchasers, unless duly recorded—1825, ch. 203, sec. 1, . . . . .	858
See Mortgages.
Absolute conveyances in terms of real estate or chattels, which by any other instrument of writing appear to be intended as a security in nature of a mortgage, shall be considered as a mortgage, and the person for whose benefit the same is made, shall not have the benefit from the recording thereof, unless the writing operating as a defeasance be also recorded—1825, ch. 203, sec. 2, . . . . .	859