CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS.

Sanguinary laws ought to be avoided, as far as is consistent with the safety of the state; and no law to inflict cruel and unusual pains and penalties ought to be made, in any case, or at any time hereafter—Decl. of Rights, art. 14.

Retrospective laws, punishing facts committed before the existence of such laws, and by them only declared criminal, are oppressive, unjust, and incompatible with liberty; wherefore no ex post facto law ought to be made—Decl. of Rights, art. 15.

No law to attain particular persons of treason or felony, ought to be made in any case, or at any time hereafter—Decl. of Rights, art. 16.
