

	Page.
this state, to issue, under his hand, a warrant to the sheriff of the county to execute the said judgment at such time as he shall therein appoint—1795, ch. 82, sec. 1,	328
The governor shall, in his discretion, commute or change any sentence or judgment of death passed on any criminal by any court of this state into other punishment of labour, or to banishment of such criminal from this state, upon such terms and conditions, and for such period, as he shall think expedient, and if such criminal be a slave, to commute or change the said judgment into transportation and sale in some foreign country for the benefit of the state—1795, ch. 82, sec. 2,	328
The governor shall have full power and authority, in granting any nolle prosequi, before sentence or judgment, to grant the same on such conditions, and under such limitations and restrictions therein contained, as in his discretion may appear most advisable to preserve and secure the peace and good government of this state—1795, ch. 82, sec. 3,	328
Directions respecting the payment of fees, for and in criminal cases—1715, ch. 26, p. 12; 1727, ch. 2, p. 69; 1766, ch. 6,	109
On conviction for treason, the judgment shall be to suffer death by hanging only, and the circumstance of cruelty of the judgment by the law of England shall be omitted, and the judgment as to forfeiture of property shall be as heretofore—April, 1782, ch. 42,	181
Punishment for forging any manifest or note for tobacco, or altering the quantity, &c.—1801, ch. 63, sec. 26,	447
For knowingly exporting tobacco marked with a forged stamp, or demanding tobacco on a forged note—1801, ch. 63, sec. 27,	448
For putting tobacco into a hogshead marked by an inspector, &c.—1801, ch. 63, sec. 27,	448
The testimony of inspectors to be admitted—1801, ch. 63, sec. 27,	448
For selling or producing forged certificates as to tobacco notes lost—1801, ch. 63, sec. 28,	448
For perjury relating thereto—1801, ch. 63, sec. 28,	448
When sentence of death passed on a slave is commuted by the governor, the valuation to be paid by the treasurer—1802, ch. 92,	467
The party prosecuted for a libel entitled to give the truth in evidence by way of justification—1803, ch. 54,	482
On suggestion, in writing, by a party indicted, supported by affidavit, that a fair trial cannot be had in the court, the record to be removed to any adjoining county court for trial—1804, ch. 55, sec. 3,	491
Proviso that further remedy by law may be given—1804, ch. 55, sec. 3,	500
To be removed on such suggestion in writing by the attorney-general or prosecutor for the state—1804, ch. 55, sec. 4,	491
Further regulations respecting the removal—1804, ch. 65, sec. 49,	507
Not to alter the powers of the court of oyer and terminer for Baltimore county, or to give criminal jurisdiction to Baltimore county court—1804, ch. 25,	505
Persons mixing meal with wheat flour for sale, &c. to be fined and imprisoned—1805, ch. 82, sec. 1,	511