

ment &c. not less than three nor more than ten years. 5th. Breaking a dwelling-house in the day-time, or a store house, &c. in the day or night, with intent to commit murder or felony therein, or aiding, &c.—confinement &c. not less than two nor more than ten years. 6th. Breaking into a shop, &c. though not contiguous to or used with the mansion-house, and stealing money, goods, &c. to the value of one dollar or upwards, or as being accessory thereto—restoration, or payment of the value, and confinement, &c. not less than two nor more than twelve years—1809, ch. 138, sec. 5,	575
No person to be sentenced to be confined in the penitentiary for a less period than two years—1825, ch. 93,	830
Convicts to be sentenced to the penitentiary for such period as will expire between the first day of April and the last day of August—1836, ch. 156,	1237
Court to sentence convicts to the penitentiary for not less than eighteen months—1839, ch. 316,	2342
The offences herein after mentioned, affecting private property, to be punished in manner following :
1st. Simple larceny, to the value of five dollars and upwards, or as accessory before the fact—restoration or payment of the value, and confinement, &c. not less than one nor more than fifteen years.
2d. Robbery, or as accessory before the fact—restoration or payment of the value, and confinement, &c. not less than three nor more than ten years. 3d. Stealing any horse, &c. or as accessory before the fact—restoration or payment of the value, and confinement, &c. not less than two nor more than fourteen years. 4th. Maliciously stabbing or killing any horse, &c. not the property of the person, or trespassing on his enclosures—confinement, &c. not less than one nor more than four years. 5th. Stealing any ship, &c. of seventeen feet keel, or upwards, from within the body of any county, or on Chesapeake bay, within the jurisdiction of the state, or feloniously taking and carrying away any negro or other slave, or aiding, &c.—restoration of the vessel or slave, or payment of the value, and confinement not more than twelve years. 6th. Stealing personal goods under the value of five dollars, or breaking into a shop, &c. not contiguous to or used with any mansion-house, and stealing money, &c. under the value of one dollar—restoration or payment of the value, and confinement, &c. not less than three months nor more than one year. The same course of trial to be had as in other simple larcenies, and the person on conviction deemed guilty of petty larceny. 7th. Robbery or larceny of a bond, &c. for payment of money, lottery ticket, will, &c.—same punishment as for robbery or larceny of goods and chattels. 8th. Knowingly receiving stolen money, goods or bonds, &c. for the payment of money, lottery ticket, &c.—restoration or payment of the value, and confinement, &c. not less than three months, nor more than ten years. 9th. Fraudulently employing an artist to engrave, or being engaged in engraving any plate in imitation of bank notes of this state, &c. or striking impressions therefrom, or fixing	