

	Page.
Sentence of death to be by hanging by the neck—1809, ch. 138, sec. 16,	585
The court to ascertain and declare the periods of confinement within the periods prescribed—1809, ch. 138, sec. 16,	585
If a person be feloniously stricken or poisoned in one county and die in another within one year, the trial shall be in the court within whose jurisdiction the county lies where the stroke or poison was given—1809, ch. 138, sec. 17,	585
In like manner an accessory to murder or felony, shall be tried by the court within whose jurisdiction the person became accessory—1809, ch. 138, sec. 17,	585
On striking, &c. on Chesapeake bay, and death in any county, or striking in any county, and death on Chesapeake bay, not within any county, the offender, and his accessories, to be tried in the court, &c. where the death happened, or the stroke or poison was given—1809, ch. 138, sec. 18,	585
A person committing any crime, &c. on the Chesapeake bay, within the state, and not in any county, and all accessories thereto, may be tried in any court (having jurisdiction,) of the county in which he may be arrested, or into which he may be first brought—1809, ch. 138, sec. 19,	585
On suggestion, in writing, by a person indicted, that a fair trial cannot be had in the court, the record to be transmitted to any adjoining county within the same, or an adjoining district for trial—1809, ch. 138, sec. 20,	585
Directions as to the costs—1809, ch. 138, sec. 20,	585
Directions for the valuation of slaves and servants on sentence of death, or confinement, &c. and payment to the owner by the county—1809, ch. 138, sec. 21,	586
For the sale of slaves and servants for the remainder of their time, after confinement, &c. and for payment to the county—1809, ch. 138, sec. 21,	586
The estate of a person sentenced to confinement, or to be executed, liable (after paying the reparation) to the expenses of prosecution, &c.—1809, ch. 138, sec. 22,	586
The court to cause the amount of reparation and costs to be certified to the keeper of the penitentiary—1809, ch. 138, sec. 22,	586
Where reparation is adjudged and not made, execution may be issued against the property for the value estimated by the court, but not to deprive the party of a civil action—1809, ch. 138, sec. 23,	587
On acquittal, in a trial for a misdemeanor, or on pleading guilty and submission, the court may order that no compensation for attendance of the prosecutor be allowed—1809, ch. 138, sec. 24,	587
The penitentiary house, near Baltimore city, appropriated for the reception of criminals, &c.—1809, ch. 138, sec. 25,	587
Appropriation of the cells for the prisoners separately—1809, ch. 138, sec. 26,	587
Directions for the removal of persons convicted thereto, by the sheriff, and fine for wilful neglect—1809, ch. 138, sec. 27,	587
As to the treatment of prisoners, clothing, diet, labour, &c.—see Penitentiary .	