

	Page.
be in their store-houses between sun-set and sun-rise—1817, ch. 227, sec. 4,	687
Possession to be given in evidence in defending suits for land taken up by warrant—1818, ch. 90,	691
See Possession .
A copy of any original certificate in the land-office, certified as therein mentioned, to be evidence—1818, ch. 100,	691
See Plots—Land-office .
In any trial under the act respecting demands on banks for gold or silver, the courts authorized to compel any party in the transactions prohibited, to give evidence; but no evidence so given to be used against him in any trial for the like offence—1818, ch. 191, sec. 7,	699
Where a power is given to take bills pro confesso, &c. a decision may be made against the absent defendants, on the testimony taken between the parties—1818, ch. 193, sec. 5,	700
The informer a competent witness under the act of 1817, for the better protection of slaveholders in the several counties therein mentioned—1820, ch. 88.
Copies and extracts from the manuscript or printed volumes of the proceedings of the legislature lodged with the clerk of the court of appeals, when officially attested by the clerk to be received in evidence—1825, ch. 78, sec. 2,	830
Instruments of writing attested by a subscribing witness to be proved in the same manner as, if not so attested—1825, ch. 120,	830
This act not to extend to last wills and testaments—1825, ch. 78, sec. 2,	830
A copy of a writ of error, or appeal bond, good evidence to prove the execution of such bond—1826, ch. 200, sec. 12,	887
Certain chancery records, when completed, to be evidence—1826, ch. 237,	896
Regulations respecting the appointment of commissioners in the several counties, to take the depositions of witnesses in civil cases—1828, ch. 165,	966
Persons interested in having any fact proved, may have the depositions of witnesses taken before any commissioner, upon reasonable notice to the party against whom such deposition is intended to be used—1828, ch. 165,	966
Transcripts from the books of inspectors of tobacco, certified under hand and seal of the inspector, made legal—1829, ch. 91, sec. 1,	981
Private laws and resolutions may be read in evidence in any court, &c. from the printed statute books, in the same manner public laws, &c. are—1829, ch. 219,	994
Relating to issuing commissions to take, in certain cases, authorizing the issuing a commission to one person only, to take testimony in causes depending in chancery, &c. if the parties in the cause consent thereto—1829, ch. 159,	984
In case of application for divorce, to provide for taking—1829, ch. 202,	990
See Witnesses .	