

	Page.
curtesy, and the court shall award to the tenant a reasonable proportion of the purchase money—1820, ch. 191, sec. 35, . . . .	756
Where the estate is incapable of division and any of the parties elect to take the estate at the valuation, the person so electing, shall take the estate disencumbered by the tenancy by the curtesy, and the court shall award the tenant by the curtesy, a proportion of the valuation—1820, ch. 191, sec. 36, . . . . .	756
If any person shall become entitled, as tenant by the curtesy, after the return of the commissioners and before a sale or division, the court may order the return to be altered—1820, ch. 191, sec. 37, . . . .	757
Where a person is entitled, by deed or devise to a life estate the same proceedings shall be had as in case of a tenant by the curtesy, and where a person is entitled to a remainder, after such life estate, the same proceedings shall be had as where a person is entitled, subject to a tenancy by the curtesy—1820, ch. 191, sec. 38, . . . . .	757
Where a person is entitled, by devise in fee, the same proceedings shall be had as in case of purchasers—1820, ch. 191, sec. 39, . . . .	757
When all the commissioners die without completely executing their commission, the court on application may appoint other commissioners—1820, ch. 191, sec. 40, . . . . .	757
Form of the petition—1820, ch. 191, sec. 40, . . . . .	757
A warrant to issue to such new commissioners who are thereupon to proceed to the execution of the original commission—1820, ch. 191, sec. 41, . . . . .	758
Such new commissioners to make a return of their proceedings, which shall have the same effect as if such commissioners had been named in the original commission—1820, ch. 191, sec. 42, . . . .	758
A majority of the commissioners may qualify and execute such commission—1820, ch. 191, sec. 43, . . . . .	758
Where lands lie in several counties in the same judicial district, application may be made to the county wherein the greatest quantity of the lands lie—1820, ch. 191, sec. 44, . . . . .	758
Where the lands lie in different counties, in different judicial districts, but lie adjoining, application may be made to the court where the greatest portion of the lands lie—1820, ch. 191, sec. 45, . . . .	759
Where the lands lie in different judicial districts, and not adjoining, application may be made in the different districts to the courts of the counties where the greatest portion of the lands lie—1820, ch. 191, sec. 46, . . . . .	759
Same proceedings to be had in all such applications as if the lands laid in one county—1820, ch. 191, sec. 47, . . . . .	759
Devisees may apply for a division of lands devised to them jointly or in common—1820, ch. 191, sec. 48, . . . . .	759
Commissioners to be appointed and to divide the estate equally according to the will of the deceased—1820, ch. 191, sec. 49, . . . .	759
Where any of the parties are not resident in the state, the commissioner shall give notice, &c. at least two months before they proceed to execute the commission—1820, ch. 191, sec. 50, . . . .	759