

PUBLIC GENERAL LAW.

2617
Page.

The statement in the proceedings to be prima facie evidence that due notice was given—1820, ch. 191, sec. 51, 760

The act to direct descents and its supplements, and the sixth section of the act of 1797, ch. 14, repealed, except as to such estates as descended before the passage of this act—1820, ch. 191, sec. 52, 760

A supplement to the act to amend and reduce into one system—1827, ch. 208, 942

In case of death, removal, &c. of commissioners appointed under the act to which this is a supplement, without having executed their duties, it shall be the duty of the court issuing the commission, to fill up the vacancy, &c.—1827, ch. 208, sec. 1, 942

Persons may, in writing, attested, &c. elect or refuse to take the whole or any part of any estate, at the value fixed by the commissioners, &c. which writing, when filed, &c. shall be as valid as if such person had made such election or refusal in open court—1827, ch. 208, sec. 2, 943

Provided, that if any person making such election or refusal in writing as aforesaid, be a feme covert, such written election or refusal, shall not be valid unless the same shall be acknowledged by her to be signed voluntarily, in the presence of such persons as are by law authorized to take acknowledgments of feme covert, &c. &c.—1827, ch. 208, 943

Further supplement to the act to regulate; extending the provisions of the 29th section of the original act to purchasers, &c. of undivided interest of heirs, &c.—1829, ch. 32, 974

Where no deed can be given for real estate sold by commissioners, to the heir or person electing, or to the purchaser, as the case may be, by reason of the death, removal or other inability of a majority of the commissioners, the proper court or chancellor to appoint commissioners, &c.—1832, ch. 53, 1074

In cases of sales of land by commissioners, county court to order deed of conveyance and to appoint one commissioner to execute it—1833, ch. 93, 1114

DETINUE.

In actions of detinue, the courts, on affidavit or other evidence, may award special bail, and commit for want thereof—1753, ch. 17, sec. 2, 100

DEAF AND DUMB.

Their number in the state to be ascertained by the collectors of the tax in the several counties, and reported to the next general assembly—1826, ch. 255, 917

For the education of the indigent—1827, ch. 140, 935

Levy courts, county commissioners, and mayor and city council of Baltimore, severally required to report, on the first Monday in May annually, to the governor and council, the number of, between 12 and 25 years of age, in their respective counties and city—1827, ch. 140, 935