

	Page.
The electors of president and vice-president directed to assemble on the first Wednesday of December, 1808, and in every fourth year thereafter, at the city of Annapolis, and perform the duties enjoined on them—1805, ch. 97, sec. 21,	522
Unless congress should otherwise direct, and in that event, on the day thereby directed—1805, ch. 97, sec. 21,	522
For all elections for representatives, electors, &c. in the city of Baltimore, and for sheriffs therein, as a part of the county, the city divided into eight wards or districts—1805, ch. 97, sec. 22,	523
The judges of the elections for members of the first branch of the city council to be judges of the elections therein for representatives, &c. and hold the said elections at the places prescribed as to the city council, and pursue the regulations in this act prescribed—1805, ch. 97, sec. 22,	523
The mayor to cause public notice to be given of the elections aforesaid—1805, ch. 97, sec. 23,	523
His duty, as to elections to fill a vacancy—1805, ch. 97, sec. 23,	523
Every person qualified to vote, shall vote in the election district in which he shall reside, at the time of the election, and in no other place—1805, ch. 97, sec. 24,	524
On a person offering to vote in any name not his own—1805, ch. 97, sec. 25,	524
Penalty on persons having voted once offering to vote again in the same district or county—1805, ch. 97, sec. 25,	524
On a person offering to vote in the place of any other person of the same name—1805, ch. 97, sec. 25,	524
Residing out of the district or county, and offering to vote therein—1805, ch. 97, sec. 25,	524
The fines to be recovered on warrant before a justice of the peace, or a judge of the election—1805, ch. 97, sec. 25,	524
Persons voting twice at one election, may be presented, fined and imprisoned—1805, ch. 97, sec. 26,	524
Same as to candidates or other persons practising force or violence to influence unduly or interrupt any election—1805, ch. 97, sec. 27,	524
Penalty on commissioned or non-commissioned officers mustering or embodying troops under their command, or marching recruiting parties within view, during the time of holding an election—1805, ch. 97, sec. 28,	524
Candidates, or other persons, giving or promising any gift or reward to secure any person's vote, liable to fine and imprisonment, on conviction in the county court—1805, ch. 97, sec. 29,	525
Same on keeping, or suffering to be kept any house, tent, booth, &c. in any part of the district, during the day of the election, where victuals or intoxicating liquors shall be given to voters—1805, ch. 97, sec. 29,	525
County clerks to endorse on the certificates and polls the day when received—1805, ch. 97, sec. 30,	525
Compensation for such service—1805, ch. 97, sec. 30,	525