| | Page. |
|---|-------|
| rized by a law thereof in some of the limited states or of the terri- | |
| tories thereof, declared null and void-1809, ch. 103, | 567 |
| | 1134 |
| Service of process upon president, director or agent, to be deemed ser- | |
| vice on the corporation, and not appearing at the first term, judg- | |
| ment by default to be rendered-1834, ch. 89, sec. 3, | 1134 |
| If agent is withdrawn or his authority revoked, and no corporation to | |
| be found, service on the person last the agent, sufficient, &c. provi- | |
| ded copy of the process be served on the corporation in the state | |
| where incorporated—1834, ch. 89, sec. 4, | 1135 |
| | |
| Agents of foreign insurance companies to pay two per cent premium to | |
| | 2329 |
| , , | 2330 |
| | 2330 |
| Investing to a certain amount in the stocks of this state or in banks in | |
| Baltimore exempt, on diminution of investment exemption with- | |
| drawn—1839, ch. 220, | 2330 |
| | |
| FOREIGN COINS. | |
| The rates as regulated and established by congress to be adjudged the | |
| current money of this state—1812, ch. 135, sec. 1, | 610 |
| See Current Money. | 010 |
| See Current Money. | |
| FOREIGN COURTS. | |
| No sentence, judgment, &c. of any judge, court, &c. having municipal, admiralty, or prize jurisdiction without the limits of the United States, and its territories, shall be conclusive evidence of any fact, &c. therein contained, except of the acts and doings of such judge, court, &c.—1813, ch. 164, | 623 |
| FOREIGN PASSENGERS. | |
| - · · · · | |
| Masters of vessels from foreign countries or any other of the United | |
| | |
| States, arriving at the port of Baltimore, to report to the mayor, &c. | |
| States, arriving at the port of Baltimore, to report to the mayor, &c. under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, | |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger-1832, ch. 303, | 1096 |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger-1832, ch. 303, | 1096 |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each pas- | 1096 |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, | |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, penalty upon failure one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 2, | |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, penalty upon failure one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 2, If master suffers any alien passenger to land within fifty miles of the | |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, penalty upon failure one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 2, If master suffers any alien passenger to land within fifty miles of the city shall pay one dollar and fifty cents, or give bond or forfeit | 1096 |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, penalty upon failure one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 2, If master suffers any alien passenger to land within fifty miles of the city shall pay one dollar and fifty cents, or give bond or forfeit one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 3, | |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, penalty upon failure one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 2, If master suffers any alien passenger to land within fifty miles of the city shall pay one dollar and fifty cents, or give bond or forfeit | 1096 |
| under penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger—1832, ch. 303, sec. 1, To pay to the mayor, &c. one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, or to give bond to indemnify the authorities from all charge, penalty upon failure one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 2, If master suffers any alien passenger to land within fifty miles of the city shall pay one dollar and fifty cents, or give bond or forfeit one hundred dollars—1832, ch. 303, sec. 3, | 1096 |

There ought to be no forfeiture of any part of the estate of any person for any crime, except murder or treason against the state, and then only on conviction and attainder—Decl. of Rights, art. 24.