

	Page.
In making appointments of justices of the district courts, the executive hereafter not to be restricted to the list of justices of the peace—1836, ch. 275, sec. 4,	1246
To transmit the commissions of justices of district courts to the clerks of county courts, &c.—1836, ch. 275, sec. 5,	1246
To appoint an additional inspector of tobacco for the new warehouse, to be known as number four—1837, ch. 43,	1250

GRAND JURY.

No process for any criminal matter or other misdemeanor shall issue out of any court without a presentment first found by the grand jury, unless by a special order of the court—1715, ch. 48, sec. 1, 2,	41
Clerks not to issue such process without an order from an attorney—1715, ch. 48, sec. 3,	42
No attorney-general, or clerk of the peace or of indictments, shall exhibit any bill of indictment to a grand jury without an order from the court or one of the justices, or unless the offender be bound over to such court, or presented by the grand jury of their own knowledge—1722, ch. 5,	58
The sheriffs to return to the county courts a panel of forty-eight jurors, out of which twenty-three are to be drawn by ballot to serve as grand jurors during the term—1797, ch. 87, sec. 8,	350
May signify objections to persons obtaining retailers' licenses—1827, ch. 117, sec. 3,	930

GREAT BRITAIN.

The treaty of peace made between the United States of America and his Britannic majesty declared the supreme law within this state, to be so adjudged in all courts, &c.—April, 1787, ch. 25,	243
---	-----

GUARDIANS.

See ORPHANS COURT.

GUNS.

Not to be kept by negroes or slaves—1806, ch. 81, sec. 1,	543
See Negroes .

HABEAS CORPUS.

When a writ of habeas corpus is served by delivery to the officer, or person to whom it is directed, or by leaving it at the gaol or place in which the party is detained, (unless the warrant of commitment express the same to have been for treason or felony,) such officer or person shall within three days, make return of the writ, and cause the prisoner or person detained to be brought before the proper court, judge, &c. according to the command thereof—1809, ch. 125, sec. 1,	568
He shall likewise certify the true cause of detainer or imprisonment, or pretence thereof—1809, ch. 125, sec. 1,	568