

	Page.
Judgments to be rendered in the money thereby made current—1812, ch. 135, sec. 3,	611
But not to vitiate any judgment rendered in the former manner—1812, ch. 135, sec. 3,	611
Scire facias on judgments, when to be issued to different counties, &c. —1812, ch. 145,	611
Judgments suspended by petition of insolvent debtors may, on decision against them, be proceeded on without scire facias—1814, ch. 122, sec. 2,	629
Judgment to be entered against sheriffs, &c. on americiament for not re- turning process—1815, ch. 149, sec. 1, 2,	631
Judgment to be entered by default where the executor in another state, &c. of a defendant deceased, when summoned, does not appear— 1815, ch. 149, sec. 4,	632
On appeals from a judgment the death of the appellant may be sug- gested, &c.—1815, ch. 149, sec. 5,	633
Provisions concerning the records of judgments—1817, ch. 119,	664
Where a judgment of the county court is reversed, and it shall be ne- cessary that a procedendo should be awarded, the court of appeals on suggestion, &c. may direct a transcript of the proceedings with a procedendo, to any other county court on the shore, directing a new trial to be had in the same manner as if no trial had been had, &c.—1819, ch. 149,	716
Same proceedings to be had thereon as is directed by the act of 1790, ch. 42—1819, ch. 149,	716
Execution may issue on any judgment, at any time within three years after the rendition of such judgment—1823, ch. 194,	800
No judgment hereafter to be rendered upon any promissory note, bill of exchange, or other negotiable instrument, shall be reversed be- cause the endorsement may be in blank—1825, ch. 35,	824
In cases of appeals from the judgment of any county court, the court of appeals not to reverse or affirm such judgment upon any ques- tion not presented to the county court, and upon which such court had rendered judgment—1825, ch. 117, sec. 1,	833
To be rendered by justices of the peace in cases of debt depending before them, in favour of either plaintiff or defendant, for such sum as may appear just and right—1825, ch. 158,	835
Voluntary confession of, in favour of any creditor or security, by an applicant for the benefit of the insolvent laws, declared to be an undue preference—1827, ch. 70, sec. 7,	926
Confessed by insolvent debtors with a view to become insolvent, null and void—1830, ch. 65,	999
A supplement to the act of 1829, ch. 166, providing that in all cases where judgments shall be obtained at the second term, a stay to be allowed to the first Thursday of ensuing term—1830, ch. 80,	999
Judgment against one or more members of a partnership, not to affect a liability against another—1839, ch. 134,	2340
Where any judgment of any county court shall be affirmed by the court of appeals, and the court shall be of opinion that the appeal taken,	