

A justice of the peace may be eligible as a senator, delegate or member of the council, and continue to act as a justice of the peace— Const. art. 44.
Justices of the orphans court may act as justices of the peace—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 6, . . . . .	411
Oath to be taken by the justices, and how to be certified and recorded —Feb. 1777, ch. 5, . . . . .	127
Justices empowered to observe the demeanor of persons before them, and to fine them for indecent behaviour and contempt of their authority—1719, ch. 4, sec. 3, . . . . .	49
Justices not exempted from serving as jurors—1797, ch. 87, sec. 6, . . . . .	350
One justice may adjudge persons taken up and brought before him to be runaways, and may secure them—1715, ch. 44, sec. 6, 9, 20, . . . . .	27
May bind over persons dealing with servants and not being able to pay the fine—1715, ch. 44, sec. 13, . . . . .	28
May order the correction of servants brought before him by their mas- ters—1715, ch. 44, sec. 21, . . . . .	28
May order any negro to be whipped for carrying a gun from his mas- ter's land without license, and may order a forfeiture of the gun to the person seizing it, &c.—1715, ch. 44, sec. 32, . . . . .	31
May give judgment for the fine for hunting in enclosed ground—1728, ch. 7, sec. 7, . . . . .	72
Shall take an account of the marks of horses, &c. brought before him, which the persons aggrieved shall set up—1715, ch. 31, sec. 4. . . . .	18
May punish slaves guilty of pilfering or stealing, &c. by whipping— 1717, ch. 13, sec. 6, . . . . .	47
May give judgment for the fine on persons refusing to go with the con- stable to suppress the tumultuous meetings of negroes, or refusing when there to assist such constable—1723, ch. 15, sec. 3, . . . . .	64
May, on any negro or other slave striking any white person, cause one of such negro's ears to be cropped—1723, ch. 15, sec. 4,* . . . . .	64
May give judgment for the fine on persons encouraging negroes or other slaves to meet in companies on their plantations—1723, ch. 15, sec. 5, . . . . .	64
On the owners of slaves suffering them to keep horses or mares, or to raise cattle or hogs, as their own property—1723, ch. 15, sec. 6, . . . . .	65
On persons profanely swearing or cursing before any magistrate, minis- ter, &c.—1723, ch. 16, sec. 2, . . . . .	66
On persons getting drunk before such magistrate, &c.—1723, ch. 16, sec. 3, . . . . .	66
Shall, where the offenders are freeholders, &c. and not able to pay the fines, certify them to the county courts—1723, ch. 16, sec. 4, . . . . .	66
May give judgment for the fine incurred by other justices or officers being themselves guilty of cursing, &c.—1723, ch. 16, sec. 6, . . . . .	67
May commit any person to prison who shall revile such justice, or any officer executing this act, for one month, unless security is given as therein directed—1723, ch. 16, sec. 7, . . . . .	67

* Punishment changed to whipping, by 1821, ch. 240.