

	Page.
battery, and in actions where the titles of land may come in question—1834, ch. 296, sec. 1,	1187
In all such cases appeal to lie to the county court—1834, ch. 296, sec. 2,	1188
On the neglect of constable to return any execution, or on his failing to produce the defendant he may be fined, and judgment may be entered against him for the debt and costs—1806, ch. 21, sec. 2, . .	538
The justice may issue execution for such fine, &c.—1806, ch. 21, sec. 3, .	538
If the constable shall satisfy the plaintiff, he shall have the same remedy against the defendant—1806, ch. 21, sec. 4,	538
Judgments rendered by a single magistrate may be superseded within two months by confession before one justice of the peace of the county in the manner therein prescribed—1791, ch. 67, sec. 3, . .	276
On judgments exceeding £10, the defendant may supersede within sixty days, which shall stay execution for twelve months thereafter—1809, ch. 76, sec. 2,	566
The supersedeas to be taken by the justices who rendered the judgment, and no other, if living in the county, and acting as such—1809, ch. 76, sec. 3,	566
See Supersedeas.
County courts not to hold plea in cases within the justices jurisdiction, not exceeding $50, except on writs, before the first of May then next—1809, ch. 76, sec. 6,	567
Justices shall write probat, administer an oath, for which he shall be entitled six cents, and no more, and he shall not charge mileage fee for the performance of any duty as such—1809, ch. 76, sec. 7, .	567
Judgments by justices of the peace to be entered so as to carry interest from the date—1809, ch. 153, sec. 5,	590
Where a judgment has been assigned, no execution to issue unless a demand by the person holding the same is proved—1811, ch. 174, .	606
But not necessary if such debtor shall have removed since the judgment from his then place of residence—1811, ch. 174,	606
The courts to proceed to hear appeals from the decision of a justice, where the appellee shall not appear on two summonses, or one attachment being returned non est—1818, ch. 166, sec. 1,	694
No appeal to be dismissed because the same had not been prayed to the county court next after the judgment, unless the court shall be satisfied that the appellant had notice of such judgment at least ten days before the sitting of the said county court—1818, ch. 166, sec. 3,	694
See 1831, ch. 290, p. 1045; 1826, ch. 236.
Claims on any of the banks under $50 to be recovered before a justice of the peace—1818, ch. 177, sec. 1,	695
Manner of proceeding—1818, ch. 177, sec. 2,	695
A further additional supplement for the recovery of, authorizing justices of the peace to issue fieri facias, &c. on a short copy of judgment rendered by any other justice of the peace, the said short copy to be certified by the clerk of the county, with the account annexed—1831, ch. 271,	1034