

	Page.
District justices to transmit all the papers, under penalty of $20— 1835, ch. 201, sec. 3, . . . . .	1199
In all cases tried before a single justice either party may appeal to the county court or district court—1836, ch. 305, sec. 3, . . . . .	1248
The party demanding an appeal from the district court to pay the costs first—1836, ch. 305, sec. 3, . . . . .	1248
No plaintiff to be non-suited or have judgment against him or pay costs, where the debt recovered has been reduced below the juris- diction of the court by reason of an account in bar or set-off, &c. and not by payments in money—1835, ch. 201, sec. 5, . . . . .	1200
District justice first named in the commission, to be the chief justice for his district—1835, ch. 201, sec. 6, . . . . .	1200
Any one justice out of court to have power to issue process, &c.— 1835, ch. 201, sec. 6, . . . . .	1200
During the sittings of the court, the chief justice or in his absence, the presiding justice may issue summons for witness and on not ap- pearing may issue attachment, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 6, . . . . .	1200
Chief justice or in his absence the next named justice to keep a regular docket, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 7, . . . . .	1201
Each justice to keep a docket of all original process issued by him to be transferred from time to time to the docket of the chief jus- tice—1835, ch. 201, sec. 7, . . . . .	1201
Any person wilfully altering any part thereof to be deemed guilty of forgery, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 7, . . . . .	1201
District court to have jurisdiction of all cases of assault and battery committed within the district, unless it shall appear that said as- sault, &c. was committed with intent to kill—1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
To issue process against the party accused, who, upon appearing may submit or traverse the case or enter into recognizance to appear before the next county court—1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
In case of conviction to be punished by fine and imprisonment, the state and party accused to have the benefit of witnesses, party to have reasonable time to prepare his defence by attorney, may be discharged upon giving bail—1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
Judgment may be given for cost and fine for the recovery of which, court may issue writ of ca. sa. or fi. fa. or may commit the party— 1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
Certificates to be given to persons entitled to any part of the costs— 1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
But in case party accused is acquitted or insolvent, all costs to be taxed up against the county to be levied in the names of the persons entitled thereto—1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
Provided the district courts shall not exercise such criminal jurisdiction in any case when the attorney-general or his deputy shall express his dissent in writing, unless the justices unanimously determine to take cognizance of such case—1835, ch. 201, sec. 8, . . . . .	1202
Any one justice to have power to adjourn from day to day, and to the next monthly meeting—1835, ch. 201, sec. 9, . . . . .	1203