

	Page.
the attachment, come in and shew that he was not indebted, &c.—
1835, ch. 201, sec. 14,	1205
The condemnation to be a good bar against any suit brought against the garnishee—1835, ch. 201, sec. 14,	1205
On all judgments, the party in whose favour the same may be rendered, may have execution on application to any one of the justices, who may issue fieri facias or ca. sa. in the same form and manner as now used and practised by a single justice of the peace—1835, ch. 201, sec. 15,	1207
All such process to be issued to the sheriff or constable residing in the district, except executions for fines, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 15,	1207
Justices of the district courts, out of court, to exercise the same powers, and be entitled to the same fees within their respective counties, as justices of the peace now exercise, and are entitled to, in cases where the demand in controversy does not exceed $50—1835, ch. 201, sec. 16,	1207
In all cases where the demand exceeds $50, their fees regulated—1835, ch. 201, sec. 16,	1207
Constables to collect them, and to be entitled to ten per cent. commission, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 16,	1207
Constables executing any process, to be entitled to the fees now allowed by law—1835, ch. 201, sec. 16,	1207
Their bonds hereafter to be taken in the penalty of $2,000—1835, ch. 201, sec. 16,	1207
For the recovery of judgments rendered by the district courts, for fines, penalties and forfeitures, executions to be issued by the chief justice, to the sheriff or some constable of the county, and returnable to the next ensuing monthly meeting in the usual form, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 17,	1208
No proceedings or process to be set aside, for mere want of form—1835, ch. 201, sec. 17,	1208
Chief justice, once in every year, to transmit to the clerk of the levy court, or commissioners, a correct list of all fines, &c. collected, under penalty of $20—1835, ch. 201, sec. 17,	1208
Every justice before he acts, shall take the oaths required to be taken by justices of the peace, and the oath prescribed to be taken by a judge of the county court—1835, ch. 201, sec. 18,	1208
No special pleading required, but plaintiff to make declaration of his claim, &c. in a plain, substantial manner: and defendant to plead in bar, the general issue, in writing if required, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 19,	1208
Parties entitled to appear by attorney, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 20,	1209
Any person making oath that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial, may remove his case to any adjoining district court, in which case all the papers to be sent, &c. and there to be determined, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 21,	1209
All laws relating to proceedings against executors and administrators, before justices of the peace, made applicable to similar proceedings before district courts—1835, ch. 201, sec. 22,	1209