

	Page.
Collectors proceeding to the sale of goods or chattels to enforce the payment of the county charge shall be entitled to the same fees as are established by law on the service of executions—1794, ch. 53, sec. 7,	310
Allowance to the justices of the levy courts—1794, ch. 53, sec. 9,	310
To allow compensation for trees cut down, for repairs on public roads—1795, ch. 37.
See Index, Roads, Charles County.
Nothing in the act to authorize the justices to allow any claim not properly chargeable to the county, or for which a legal voucher is not produced—1794, ch. 53, sec. 11,	310
Accounts to be left by collectors, before distraining for taxes—1800, ch. 85,	434
Bonds given by constables to be approved by the levy court—1809, ch. 177,	595
See Constables.
Nothing in this act to empower the levy courts to increase the allowance to the poor-houses, where they are ascertained by law—1794, ch. 53, sec. 12,	310
Returns to be made to the levy courts by the county clerks, of fines imposed on witnesses by justices of the peace, to be applied to the county charges—1801, ch. 42, sec. 3,	435
Copies of the levy list to be sent annually by the county clerks to the general assembly—1801, ch. 74, sec. 27,	461
The levy courts shall annually cause their clerks to make out as many lists of the moneys levied for county charges as there are election districts—1802, ch. 81,	466
The lists to specify the amounts levied for different purposes—1802, ch. 81,	466
To be signed by the clerks, and delivered to the sheriffs ten days before the election for delegates, &c—1802, ch. 81,	466
To be set up by the sheriffs at each place of holding elections within six days after delivery—1802, ch. 81,	466
The part of the act of 1798, ch. 34, requiring the governor and council to appoint the justices of the levy courts from those commissioned as justices of the peace, repealed—1802, ch. 81,	466
The property of deceased persons formerly devolving on free schools, to go to the counties where there are no colleges or schools, as therein directed—1802, ch. 101, sec. 11,	475
The justices of the levy courts for the time being, in each county, declared to be one corporation—1804, ch. 73, sec. 1,	493
The judges of the levy courts shall appoint, between the first Monday of April and of August in every year, three persons as judges for each election district, resident therein, and in case of death, resignation, &c. the levy courts to appoint others at any meeting thereafter—1805, ch. 97, sec. 6,	514
Provisions concerning constables and runaways—1806, ch. 81, sec. 4, 5,	543
Power given to the levy courts to correct errors in the assessment of	