

property, and to levy and repay money so assessed to the person, or his order, for whom the same was levied—1807, ch. 129, . . .	552
To levy the costs of trials in criminal cases where the proceedings are transmitted to an adjoining county court for trial, &c.—1809, ch. 138, sec. 20,	585
The valuation of slaves, &c. sentenced to death, or to the penitentiary, to be assessed with the county assessment, &c.—1809, ch. 138, sec. 21,	586
Costs accruing to constables on serving warrants in criminal prosecutions to be levied on the county, &c. on acquittal—1809, ch. 169, .	593
See Local Law .
The levy courts to levy the allowance to sheriffs for the performance of their duties relative to elections—1813, ch. 170,	624
Inspectors of tobacco to pay to the levy courts the proceeds of tobacco sold, after remaining for four years, &c—1815, ch. 214,	637
Lunatic paupers may be removed by the levy courts to the Maryland hospital on the certification of the trustees of the poor—1817, ch. 78,	656
Directions for transmitting to the levy courts copies of judgments of the county courts for opening or shutting up roads, the damages, &c.—1818, ch. 89, sec. 9, p. 689; sec. 16,	690
No collector or deputy collector appointed by virtue of the act for the establishment and regulation of levy courts in the several counties of this state, shall purchase any claim, &c. which any person may have against the county for which he is collector, &c.—1819, ch. 135, sec. 1,	713
Any collector, &c. violating this law, liable on conviction to a fine of $50—1819, ch. 135, sec. 2,	713
To levy on their respective counties, the amount of constables' fees, for criminal business—1822, ch. 143,	784
Mode of recovering by the levy courts from delinquent supervisors and other debtors, any sums not exceeding $50, due to their respective counties—1823, ch. 25,	789
Authorized to pay the funeral expenses of paupers, out of the poor houses of their respective counties—1823, ch. 62,	789
In the counties in which the levy courts are vested with jurisdiction over public roads, authorized to exercise the same jurisdiction in establishing public landing places—1823, ch. 120, sec. 3,	791
To appoint constables in the different hundreds in this state, in case of the death, refusal, &c. of any constable, in the same manner as they are now authorized to appoint them, at their meeting to lay the county assessment—1824, ch. 10, sec. 1,	801
Authorized to make provision for old and infirm negro slaves belonging to insolvent estates of deceased persons—1824, ch. 100,	809
Hereafter to appoint constables of election districts, instead of hundreds, as heretofore—1824, ch. 140,	811
To make such suitable provision for old and infirm free negroes and mulattoes—1825, ch. 161, sec. 4,	838
Authorized to appear by agent or attorney to resist any application to open a road—1829, ch. 238,	997