

The treasurer to pay the prizes on demand after sixty days, deducting first the discount prescribed in the scheme, and five per cent. as a tax to the state, applicable to some general appropriation—1817, ch. 154, sec. 18,*	678
The amount of the discount prescribed in the scheme to remain to be appropriated by the general assembly to the construction of canals and roads, improving the navigation, promoting education, &c.—1817, ch. 154, sec. 18,	678
The commissioners empowered to retain a sufficient sum to defray expenses and office rent, rendering an account to the treasurer—1817, ch. 154, sec. 19,	679
Whenever the managers of the lotteries excepted in the act of this session. ch. 154, or in this act, shall have drawn any scheme, they shall not propose any further scheme, but the drawing of one shall be a full execution of the powers—1817, ch. 210, sec. 2,	682
Any sale of a lottery, or scheme or any part thereof, wherein the sum raised, or any part, may be applied to any other purpose, declared void—1817, ch. 210, sec. 3,	682
Penalty on the seller and purchaser—1817, ch. 210, sec. 3,	682
The managers of two or more lotteries authorized to consolidate them and propose a scheme to raise the several sums—1817, ch. 210, sec. 4,	683
On such agreement being stated to the commissioners, a bond to be given as therein directed, and the lottery drawn in the order to which the first was entitled—1817, ch. 210, sec. 4,	683
The drawing of such consolidated lottery considered as an execution of the whole powers granted to each—1817, ch. 210, sec. 4,	683
Should the managers of two lotteries entitled to draw in immediate succession agree to consolidate, either by themselves or together, with the managers of one or more lotteries, such consolidated lottery shall be entitled to the same length of time to propose their scheme, &c. as the said two lotteries entitled to draw in immediate succession would have been entitled to, had they been drawn separately—1817, ch. 210, sec. 5,†	684
License to be taken out by brokers dealing in bank notes and lottery tickets—1818, ch. 210, sec. 1,	704
The right to draw lotteries, authorized to be drawn by the law of this state, forfeited where the managers shall sell the scheme—1819, ch. 163, sec. 1,	719
Managers selling the same, to forfeit the sum of $3,000—1819, ch. 163, sec. 1,	719
Where to be recovered—1819, ch. 163, sec. 1,	719
This act not to affect the consolidating lotteries, according to the act of 1817—1819, ch. 163, sec. 1,	719
The commissioners to transmit a copy of the scheme to the executive—1821, ch. 191, sec. 3,	770
To deposite all moneys, &c. received by them for tickets, &c. in some bank in Baltimore, to the credit of the state—1821, ch. 191, sec. 3,	770

* See 1825, ch. 221.

† See note thereto.