

notified previously of the existence and effect of this law—1833, ch. 224, sec. 1, 2,	1121
May extend the time of service of absconding servants—1833, ch. 224, sec. 3,	1121
May order to be sold out of the state—1833, ch. 224, sec. 4,	1121
In actions of replevin, where the property is a negro, not to be sold until the action is determined, unless by order of the court—1833, ch. 274, sec. 1,	1129
Deeds of manumission executed before the passage of the act of 1831, ch. 323, and acknowledged before a justice of the peace, though not recorded, and without a witness, to be valid, if recorded before the first of October—1833, ch. 284,	1130
United States army and navy officers when ordered on duty into this state, may bring their slaves with them—1834, ch. 75,	1134
Any citizen of that part of the District of Columbia ceded by this state, owning land in this state, or any citizen of this state owning land in the said District, may remove their slaves at will : provided the slaves were not brought from any other of the United States— 1834, ch. 124,	1137
The provisions of the 2d section of the act of 1817, ch. 112, extended to all cases where persons being residents of this state, shall pur- chase any slave, knowing such slave to be entitled to freedom after a term of years, &c. with the intention to transport such slave, &c. and to all cases where such person shall remove and sell such slave, and all the provisions of said act are declared to apply to such persons, &c.—1834, ch. 266,	1179
Guardians, executors and trustees, appointed in this state, or any ad- joining state or district, authorized to bring into this state and re- move back, any slaves confided to them in trust, for hire or labour : provided a list of them be recorded in the clerk's office of the county to which they are removed, within thirty days, &c.—1834, ch. 284,	1182
Citizens of this state holding lands in Virginia and this state, and citi- zens of Virginia holding lands in this state, may remove their slaves into this state, on filing under oath, a list of the slaves so removed, in the county clerk's office, and on payment of the tax for the benefit of the colonization society, as provided by the acts of 1831 and 1833, ch. 87—1835, ch. 329, sec. 1,	1218
Slaves so removed may be employed in either state, provided that the privileges extended by the 4th section of 1831, ch. 323, are not interfered with—1835, ch. 329, sec. 2,	1218
Persons owning in whole or in part, or having hired any vessel re- quired to be registered, not to navigate the same unless in charge of a white man—1836, ch. 150, sec. 1,	1235
Otherwise vessel to be forfeited—1836, ch. 150, sec. 2,	1235
Upon the judgment, vessel to be sold and one-half of the proceeds to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the state treasury— 1836, ch. 150, sec. 4,	1236