ORPHANS COURT.

The Index to the Testamentary Law, published by the compiler of this work, has been adopted and transferred to this compilation. It is deemed more perfect than the arrangement of this Index, as it distributes under familiar subdivisions, the appropriate references; and exhausted as the compiler is, by sixteen months unremitting labour, it is a relief to him to avail himself of what is ready to his hands. The coercive power of the court to enforce obedience to decrees is classed under sub-division 'Orphans Court,' post.
