

	Page.
To be vested in the name of infant—1816, ch. 154, sec. 7,	645
Principal not to be applied to the education of infants, unless considered necessary—1816, ch. 154, sec. 8,	645
How the proceeds of sale are to descend upon the death of the minor—1816, ch. 154, sec. 9,	645
Natural guardians to give bond—1816, ch. 203, sec. 1,	649
Orphans court empowered to sell leasehold estates, and vest the proceeds—1816, ch. 203, sec. 2,	649
Sale of the real estate may be decreed to save the personal with the assent of the actual guardian—1818, ch. 193,	720
Executors and administrators to take possession of minor's estate and fulfil the duties of guardians—1820, ch. 174, sec. 1,	737
When guardians are appointed, such executors or administrators to render an account—1820, ch. 174, sec. 2,	737
Administrators relieved from such duty after the close of their administration or after three years—1825, ch. 63, sec. 1,	827
Still accountable to the orphans court, for the manner in which they have executed their trust—1825, ch. 63, sec. 2,	827
Administrators of guardian shall account for the guardianship of their deceased guardian—1827, ch. 210,	943
Proceedings directed in case of death of female guardians—1829, ch. 216,	993
Copy of bond of indemnity legalized—1829, ch. 216, sec. 3,	993
Counter security may be demanded of guardians by any person interested—1829, ch. 216, sec. 4,	993
Guardian of female must deliver over property at her age of eighteen, or marriage—1829, ch. 216, sec. 6,	993
Court may order guardian to bring into court money to be invested—1829, ch. 216, sec. 5,	993
Case of neglect, guardianship to be revoked—1829, ch. 216, sec. 5,	993
Case of revoking guardianship, account to be rendered, on failure, sequestration or imprisonment—1829, ch. 216, sec. 6,	993
Allowance to guardian for expenses of ward, incurred before his appointment—1831, ch. 315,	1061
Where executors or administrators shall pay over money to guardians informally appointed, and whose appointment has not been revoked, such payment legalized—1833, ch. 15, sec. 1,	1110
Such guardian liable to account, and his bond responsible—1833, ch. 15, sec. 2,	1110
The court authorized to appoint guardians to a female above eighteen, where a testamentary guardian declines—1834, ch. 73,	1131
Where mother is natural guardian, court may make allowances as to other guardians—1834, ch. 228,	1146
When liable for interest, see Administrators .
Proceedings against them, see Orphans Court .

HALFBLOOD.

See DISTRIBUTION.