

fined in the penitentiary for not less than ten nor more than twenty years—1835, ch. 326, sec. 1,	1218
Any citizen of this state knowingly to make, print, engrave or write, or to aid in so doing, any pictorial representation, &c. having a tendency to excite discontent, &c. among the people of this state, or either of the other states or territories, or knowingly to carry or send, or to aid in so doing, any such paper, &c. for circulation among the inhabitants of any such state or territory, upon conviction, to be deemed guilty of felony, and to be confined in the penitentiary for not less than ten nor more than twenty years—1835, ch. 326, sec. 2,	1218
The heads of convicts not to be shaved—1836, ch. 156, sec. 1,	1237
Convicts to be sentenced for such a period as will expire between the first day of April and the last day of August—1836, ch. 156, sec. 2,	1237
See Fire Company, Baltimore .
Governor, &c. on or before the 1st day of March, to appoint six persons, residents of the city or county of Baltimore, to be directors of the Maryland penitentiary—1837, ch. 320, sec. 1,	1265
To divide them into three classes: the term of service of the first class to expire at the expiration of one year: the second at the expiration of two years: and the third at the expiration of three years, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 1,	1265
Governor annually to appoint a warden, to serve for one year, or until a new appointment—1837, ch. 320, sec. 2,	1265
No director, clerk or other officer, to be eligible to the office of warden, until twelve months after the expiration of his term of service, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 2,	1265
Governor annually to appoint two persons, residents in the city of Baltimore, to be styled agents of the Maryland penitentiary, who shall perform the duties of the executive committee, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 3,	1266
Board of directors to appoint a book keeper, chaplain, matron, and other officers, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 4,	1266
To regulate their salaries and duties—1837, ch. 320, sec. 4,	1266
Warden's salary, $1,500—1837, ch. 320, sec. 5,	1266
To occupy certain portions of the building—1837, ch. 320, sec. 5,	1266
Neither he nor the directors, &c. to have the use of any convict servant, nor to have any emolument or perquisite, except as expressly provided for—1837, ch. 320, sec. 5,	1266
Warden to appoint assistant warden, whose salary shall be $700—1837, ch. 320, sec. 6,	1266
Salaries of agents and directors—1837, ch. 320, sec. 7,	1266
Book-keeper to keep a record of their attendance—1837, ch. 320, sec. 8,	1267
Duties of directors, wardens, agents and other officers—1837, ch. 320, sec. 9, 10, 11, p. 1267; sec. 12,	1268
Goods, &c. to be sold in bills of not less than $50, to any one purchaser—1837, ch. 320, sec. 14,	1268