

	Page.
Directors to report annually to the governor, at least ten days before the meeting of the legislature—1837, ch. 320, sec. 15,	1269
Expenses to be defrayed out of the funds of the penitentiary, except sums payable in virtue of appropriations, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 16,	1269
Solitary confinement of convicts regulated—1837, ch. 320, sec. 17,	1269
Any prisoner escaping shall suffer additional confinement, in the discretion of Baltimore city court—1837, ch. 320, sec. 18,	1269
Any person aiding prisoner to escape, to suffer confinement in the penitentiary, in the discretion of Baltimore city court, not exceeding ten years—1837, ch. 320, sec. 18,	1269
Directors to remodel or rebuild the western wing—1837, ch. 320, sec. 19,	1270
Construction prescribed—1837, ch. 320, sec. 19,	1270
Such system to be enforced, subject to the laws of this state and regulations of the Maryland penitentiary—1837, ch. 320, sec. 20,	1270
The residue of the wing to be constructed with reference to the most perfect organization, &c. of the female and hospital department—1837, ch. 320, sec. 20,	1270
Directors to report the progress, cost and effect of these improvements—1837, ch. 320, sec. 21,	1270
To institute suits, as if they were a body corporate—1837, ch. 320, sec. 22,	1270
Any money, bank notes, or chattel, property introduced, &c. for the purpose of rescuing, &c. any convict, to be forfeited to the use of the state, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 23,	1271
Proposals for supplies to be published, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 24,	1271
Contractor to give bond, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 24,	1271
Rules for the discipline of the institution—1837, ch. 320, sec. 25,	1271
Acts and parts of acts repealed—1837, ch. 320, sec. 27,	1278
No person connected with the institution, to receive by devise or otherwise, any property, &c.—1837, ch. 320, sec. 28,	1278
But such property to be divided among the legal heirs of the convict—1837, ch. 320, sec. 28,	1278
Baltimore city court at each and every term, to charge the grand jury to inquire into the conduct and management of the officers of the penitentiary, and to direct six of the grand jurors to visit and examine the same—Nov. 1837, ch. 138,	1268
One purveyor to be appointed in lieu of the two agents authorized under the act of 1837, ch. 320, whose duty it shall be to visit the penitentiary daily—1839, ch. 161,	2325

PEOPLE OF COLOUR.

See FREE NEGROES—NEGROES.

PENSIONS.

Of revolutionary officers and soldiers, and their widows, to be hereafter paid half-yearly on the first days of October and April in each year—1825, ch. 165, sec. 2, 849