

	Page.
Duty of sheriffs respecting hawkers and pedlars—1784, ch. 7, sec. 6, p. 183; ch. 37, sec. 23,	185
It shall be the duty of the several sheriffs to receive, and safe keep in their respective gaols, all such prisoners as may be committed under the authority of the United States, until they shall be discharged by the due course of the laws thereof, under the like penalties as if committed under the authority of this state—1789, ch. 30,	252
Provided, that the United States shall, at the discharge of the prisoners, pay fifty cents per month for each to the sheriff for the use of the county—1789, ch. 30,	252
Provided also, that they are to support such prisoners, if committed for offences against the constitution or the laws of the United States—1789, ch. 30,	252
The sheriffs' bonds to be taken between the eighth of October and the first of January in each year, in the county courts, or out of court before the chief justice, or two associates—1794, ch. 54, sec. 8,	313
One judge of the county court may take sheriff's bond—1805, ch. 65, sec. 13,	503
Any two justices of the orphans court may do so—1806, ch. 16,	537
They may qualify the sheriff—1815, ch. 62,	630
The form of the bond prescribed, and the penalty to be £10,000—1794, ch. 54, sec. 8,	313
Upon the death, resignation, &c. of any sheriff, the person appointed to succeed him shall give bond in the manner prescribed by law within sixty days from the date of his commission—1799, ch. 91,	428
In suits on sheriffs' bonds, the clerk shall, before the writ be issued, endorse thereon at whose instance and for whose use said suits were instituted, which persons shall be answerable for the costs—1794, ch. 54, sec. 10,	314
Sheriffs to return attachments issued from one county to another to compel the attendance of witnesses to the county from which they were issued—1795, ch. 23, sec. 2,	320
The attorney-general, or any of his deputies, shall, ex officio, on the application of the respective sheriffs, order writs of habeas corpus to be issued for the recovery of all fines, penalties and forfeitures, imposed by any court of record, with the costs thereon—1795, ch. 74, sec. 2,	327
All fines, &c. with the costs, shall be paid to the several sheriffs to whom such writs shall be directed, who shall, on or before the tenth day of November annually, pay over to the treasurer all such money received by them, except the costs—1795, ch. 74, sec. 3,	327
Such writs to be returned to the term next succeeding the issuing thereof—1795, ch. 74, sec. 3,	327
If the person is returned as taken thereon, the sheriff shall be obliged, either to acknowledge in open court the receipt of the full amount of such fines, &c. with the costs, or to produce the body of the person, and in default thereof, the court, on motion of the attorney-general, or any of his deputies, shall order judgment to be entered against such sheriff for the amount—1795, ch. 74, sec. 3,	327