

hands for collection, within twenty days after his qualification, and his bond shall be answerable—1817, ch. 199, sec. 1, . . . . .	681
In case of the death of a sheriff before the first of October in any year, after giving bond, his executors or administrators, if any, or his securities, empowered to complete the collection of fees duly placed in his hands—1817, ch. 199, sec. 2, . . . . .	682
The provisions of the act of 1797, ch. 43, as to sheriffs, extended to the court of chancery, and the county courts as courts of equity—1818, ch. 193, sec. 6, . . . . .	700
Duty of sheriffs as to the service of writs of habeas corpus, where there is probable cause for believing that the person confining the individual in whose behalf the writ issues, intends removing such individual with the view of evading such writ—1819, ch. 137, sec. 1, . . . . .	714
Where the sheriff or collector of the tax in any county has failed, or shall hereafter fail to make his collection within the time limited by law, the judges of the county court of the county, may, on application of such sheriff or collector, or their executors, allow them a further time to complete his collection—1820, ch. 48, sec. 1, . . . . .	727
The securities of such sheriff or collector may also make a similar application—1820, ch. 48, sec. 2, . . . . .	727
Any one judge of the county court, may after the passage of this act, grant such application to be in force until the next term of the county court—1820, ch. 48, sec. 3, . . . . .	727
Sheriffs to be allowed eighty-seven and a half cents per week, for the maintenance of debtors committed under a capias ad satisfaciendum , issued by a justice of the peace to be paid by the creditor—1820, ch. 186, sec. 1, . . . . .	741
Same for the maintenance of debtors committed under a ca. sa. issued by a county court, court of appeals, or court of equity, or for want of special bail—1820, ch. 186, sec. 2, . . . . .	742
Mode prescribed for releasing the debtor, on the creditor's refusing to pay the allowance weekly in advance—1820, ch. 186, sec. 2, . . . . .	743
If the prisoner be released before the expenditure of the money advanced, the sheriff to refund the balance—1820, ch. 186, sec. 4, . . . . .	743
The sheriffs to furnish wholesome provisions to the prisoner to the value of twelve and a half cents per day, under a penalty of $10—1820, ch. 186, sec. 4, . . . . .	743
This law not to extend to any debtor convicted on allegations filed under the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and confined for any debt due before his application for the benefit of said act—1820, ch. 186, sec. 3, . . . . .	743
Nor to any persons committed for an offence against the laws of the state, or for a fine—1820, ch. 186, sec. 8, . . . . .	744
The act of 1818, relating to the sheriff of Baltimore county, repealed—1820, ch. 186, sec. 7, . . . . .	744
The duty of sheriffs in collecting taxes imposed on proceedings in the court of chancery—1820, ch. 204, . . . . .	764
Any judge of the county courts in the recess, to exercise any power vested in the judges of the county courts, by the acts for the relief	