

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the purchaser or owner of each hogshead of tobacco inspected at any of the said warehouses, shall pay to the inspector thereof, before removing the same from said warehouses, or any of them, the sum of fifty cents for outage, portage and sealing, to be paid by them and each of them, into the treasury aforesaid, and accounted for as is herein before provided for.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That no warehouse for the inspection of tobacco shall be built or erected in said county, unless by authority of an act of the legislature.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the inspectors of tobacco in said county, and each of them, to attend at their respective warehouses every day in the week during the months of May, June, July, August, September and October, and at least once a week in every other month, and oftener if required, for the inspection and shipment of tobacco; and in case of neglect on the part of any of said inspectors to attend as aforesaid when required, either by the planter or shipper, their official bonds may be put in suit at the instance of any party aggrieved thereby.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

TOLL.

See MILLS.

TONGUE.

See CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS.

TREASON.

	Page.
No law to attain particular persons of treason ought to be made— Decl. of Rights, art. 16.
There ought to be no forfeiture of any part of the estate of any person for any crime except for murder, or treason against the state, and then only on conviction and attainder—Decl. of Rights, art. 24.
On conviction for treason, the judgment shall be to suffer death by hanging only, and the circumstance of cruelty in the judgment by the law of England, shall be omitted, and the judgment as to for- feiture of property shall be as heretofore—April, 1782, ch. 42, sec. 6,	181
Certain crimes declared to amount to treason, and persons guilty thereof to suffer death and forfeit their estates—February, 1777, ch. 20, sec. 2,	136
Such crimes to receive the same construction as was given to them under the British statute of Edward 3d, commonly called the Statute of Treasons—1777, ch. 20, sec. 2,	136
Persons concealing such crimes, &c. to be adjudged guilty of a mis- prison of treason, and to forfeit their estates—1777, ch. 20, sec. 3,	136