

indigent deaf and dumb persons, from the several counties and city of Baltimore—1827, ch. 140,	935
The duties of the trustee of the state to be performed by the treasurer of the western shore, who is authorized to appoint a clerk, &c.—1828, ch. 94,	948
On application of, the attorney-general to appoint attorneys in such counties as he has no resident deputies in, to attend to state claims, &c.—1829, ch. 90,	980
Made the duty of, to direct suit, &c. for any pecuniary right or credit of the state, which the debtor shall withhold three months or more—1829, ch. 90, sec. 2,	980
Deputy of attorney-general, or attorneys appointed by, &c. shall aid the, by advice, &c. in the adjustment and settlement of accounts of revenue officers of their respective counties, &c.—1829, ch. 90, sec. 4,	981
Authorized to allow and pay such attorney a commission, not exceeding five per centum, of all moneys sued for, and which shall first be paid into the treasury—1829, ch. 90,	981
The power given to, in the act repealing the act of 1825, ch. 166, establishing a board of public works, to appoint a person to represent the state at the meetings of all joint stock companies, incorporated to make canals and roads, &c. repealed—1829, ch. 212, sec. 2.	991
Payments of debts due to the state to be made only to, or person specially authorized by him or by virtue of judicial process—1831, ch. 68, sec. 3,	1011
To employ, and pay the salary provided by the act of 1828, ch. 74, to one or two clerks, in his discretion—1834, ch. 229,	1146
To submit to the legislature, the reports of the superintendent of the United States' road—1835, ch. 305, sec. 5,	1216
Schools, academies and colleges, receiving donations from the state, to report annually to the treasurer of the western shore—May, 1835, ch. 351, sec. 1,	1221
Refusing or neglecting to educate and furnish books to at least one poor child for every $100 received, treasurer to withhold donation—1835, ch. 351, sec. 2,	1221
Treasurer to transmit the reports annually, to the legislature—1835, ch. 351, sec. 3,	1221
Banks and savings' institutions, during their suspension of specie payments, to transmit a monthly statement of their condition to him, to be laid before the governor—1837, ch. 315, sec. 1,	1264
To provide, with assistance of the commissioner of loans, for paying in Europe, the interest accruing on the certificates of debt of the state, issued, &c. under the provisions of the act of 1835, ch. 395—1837, ch. 357, sec. 1.
To invest so much of the premiums to be received under the aforesaid act, as would remain unproductive in the treasury, &c.—1837, ch. 357, sec. 3.	