

answerable for all debts, claims and damages aforesaid, and judgment may be given, and execution may issue and have effect, as herein directed with respect to an executor giving a similar bond.

Appendix,
containing
rules omitted under their proper heads.

SEC. 8. The rules and regulations herein contained, relative to last wills and codicils, shall be construed to extend to all cases where the testator or testatrix shall die after the time when the operation of this act shall commence, without regard to the time of making the will or codicil.

SEC. 9. Forasmuch as it is the intent of the law now in force, as well as of this act, that executors and administrators should suffer no loss from the decrease of the estate, and make no gain from the increase, and that, when necessary for paying debts, a sale shall take place, and the said executor or administrator be accountable for the amount of the sales, in every case where letters testamentary or of administration have already been granted, and the administration hath not been completed, or a final account passed, the rules herein before laid down, relative to the duties and powers of executors and administrators, and the remedies against them, shall govern and prevail with respect to such part of the administration as shall remain incomplete at the time when the operation of this act is to commence; provided nevertheless, that this act shall not be construed to deprive any executor or administrator of any right which accrued to him by entering on his trust, or to exempt any executor or administrator from any remedy or proceeding against him, which any person is or shall be entitled to on account of his not having observed the directions of the law now in force.

SEC. 10. All rules herein contained, relative to an executor or administrator, shall apply and extend to an executrix or administratrix, or executors or administrators respectively, unless otherwise expressly provided for; and whenever any party in the singular number, or a male party is mentioned, the rule shall apply to a female, or to two or more having a joint interest, or jointly concerned, applying or called upon, so far as the rule can with propriety apply, or so far as is not otherwise directed.

SEC. 11. If any security of an executor or administrator shall conceive him or herself in danger of suffering from the suretyship, he may apply to the orphans court which granted the administration, and the said court may call upon the party to give counter security, to be approved by the court; and if the party so called on shall not, within a fixed reasonable time, give such counter security, the court may order the property remaining in the hands of such executor or administrator to be delivered up to such security, and the court may enforce the