

spected; and where two inspectors are appointed, if they cannot agree to pass any hogshead of tobacco, they shall, without delay, or as soon as conveniently may be, call an inspector from the next adjacent inspection, who shall determine the difference, and pass or reject such tobacco; and when any inspector shall bring his own tobacco to the warehouse whereof he is inspector, the same shall not be marked, unless it be first viewed, examined and passed, by the other inspector, or by the inspector from the next adjacent inspection; and if any inspector shall bring his own tobacco to the warehouse whereof he is the only inspector, the same shall be viewed and examined, or refused, passed and marked, as this act directs, by the inspector of the next adjacent inspection.

See 1804, ch. 85, respecting transfer tobacco.

By 1819, ch. 95, inspectors must satisfy themselves in what state the tobacco was grown, and if of foreign growth, mark the same on the hogshead.

By 1821, ch. 194, sec. 2, the inspector is to break the hogshead in five places.

By 1827, ch. 91, sec. 1, must enter on the notes and manifests 'growth of Maryland,' when it is so.

In case of sickness, inspector may appoint a person to view and inspect tobacco, &c.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That if both of the inspectors at any warehouse shall at the same time be sick or disabled, and thereby prevented from attending their duty, that in such case the said inspectors shall appoint one other person of integrity and reputation, and well skilled in the curing and packing tobacco, and the quality and condition thereof, and the person so appointed shall view and inspect, pass and mark, or refuse, all tobacco brought to the said warehouse during the sickness or disability of such sick or disabled inspectors, the said person so appointed first taking the oath or affirmation of office, as the case may be, directed by this act to be taken by inspectors, and the oath or affirmation of fidelity to this state, if such persons have not before taken the same; and the said sick or disabled inspectors, and their securities, shall be answerable for all tobacco inspected and passed by the said person by them appointed, in the same manner as if they, or each of them, had personally officiated; and if the inspector at any warehouse where there is only one appointed, shall be sick or disabled, and thereby prevented from attending his duty, in such case such inspector shall appoint a person of integrity and skill as aforesaid, and the person so appointed shall view, inspect, pass and mark, or refuse, all tobacco brought to the said warehouse during the sickness or disability of such sick or disabled inspector, the said person so appointed first qualifying as aforesaid; and the said sick or disabled inspector, and his securities, shall be answerable for all tobacco inspected and passed by the person
