CHAPTER 41.

* 1805, ch.
65.

AN ACT supplementary to an Act,* entitled, an Act to provide for the Organization and Regulation of the Courts of Common Law in this State, and for the Administration of Justice therein.

See note to 1804, ch. 55, ante page 490.

No action
commenced
to continue longer than
end of first
court after imparlance
court.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no action commenced or to be commenced, shall continue longer than the end of the first court after the imparlance court, unless with consent of parties, at the discretion of the court, or for such cause as the law heretofore allowed for granting a continuance beyond the time limited herein appearing to the satisfaction of the court; Provided, that such actions as have been transferred from the general court to the county courts, by the act to provide for the organization and regulation of the courts of common law in this state, and for the administration of justice therein, shall continue in the same manner, for the same time, and under the same circumstances, as they might have continued in the general court.

Proviso.

Court to determine
in certain cases, on merits of case.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That where any writ of error has been or may be brought, or exception taken, in any action transmitted from the late general court to any county court, under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, the court of appeals shall determine thereon upon the points arising out of the real merits of the case, and not upon the legal form of the record, nor shall the judgment which may be in such cases entered, or the opinion given in the county court, be reversed for the want of legal form in such record.

See ch. 90, sec. 10, and November, 1809, ch. 153.
