CHAPTER 124.

AN ACT to continue certain Acts of Assembly.

Acts continued.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all and every act or acts of assembly which are limited by law to continue to the end of the present session of assembly, or which would expire during the same, or before the end of the next general assembly, be and they are hereby severally continued until the thirty-first day of October next, and until the end of the next session of assembly, unless such as are repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any law which may have passed during the present session of assembly, and subject to any alterations which may have been made therein.

CHAPTER 129.

AN ACT investing the Justices of the Levy Courts of the several counties in this state with further powers.

See 1800, ch. 85, ante page 434; and Nov. 1812, ch. 191.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, by sundry inhabitants of the state, that errors have been committed by assessors, in consequence whereof many citizens have been compelled to pay twice on the same property; therefore,

Levy courts
authorized,
when satisfied that
any error
has arisen
by assessing
property,
to correct
such error.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the levy courts in the several counties of this state, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, when they shall be satisfied that any error has arisen by assessing property not liable to be assessed by any assessor, or in any other way, to rectify such errors, and to levy and assess, in the same manner as other county charges, any sum of money which any person may have been charged with and paid in consequence of any such error, and to pay the said sum of money, so assessed, to the person, or his order, for whom the same was levied.
