

coins, as have been or shall be severally regulated and established by congress, shall be adjudged and taken and recognized as the current money of this state.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the money of account of this state, shall be expressed in the same manner as the money of account of the United States, and that all accounts in the public offices, and all proceedings in the courts of this state, shall be kept and had in conformity to this regulation.

Money of accounts of the state to be expressed in same manner as those of the U. States.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all judgments and decrees in suits and actions hereafter to be rendered and passed in any court of law or equity in this state, and all penalties, fines and forfeitures, hereafter to be imposed, shall be rendered, given, made or imposed in the money hereby made current; but any judgment, decree, penalty, fine or forfeiture, rendered, given, made or imposed in the manner they heretofore have been, shall not vitiate or render erroneous any such judgment, decree, penalty, fine or forfeiture.

Judgments and decrees

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in all public bonds directed to be given to the state, hereafter to be taken and executed in virtue of any law of this state, the value of the penalty thereof shall be expressed in the money hereby made current in cases where the penalty prescribed by law may be expressed in a different money than that hereby made current; Provided, that any omission thereof shall not operate so as to discharge the obligor or obligors mentioned in such bond, or to make the same void or of no force or effect.

Public bonds.

Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall commence and be in force from and after the first day of June next.

When this act to take effect.

CHAPTER 145.

A further additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act to provide for the organization and regulation of the Courts of Common Law in this state, and for the administration of justice therein.

* 1805, ch. 65.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases of scire facias against heirs and terre-tenants, which have been issued, or which shall or may be issued out of any county court of this state, when any one or more of the heirs or terre tenants named and included in such writ of scire facias, or to whom the same was intended to be made known, shall be resident in any other county than that in which the judgment upon which such scire facias shall have been issued, or may be issued, was obtained, it shall and may be lawful for the clerk of the county court who shall have issued or may issue the said scire facias, to issue and direct to the sheriff of each and every other county wherein any of the said heirs or terre-tenants shall or may reside, a duplicate of the said writ of scire facias, returnable to the county court in which the said judg-

Scire facias against heirs resident in any county than that in which judgment issued how to be served, &c.