

proceedings shall be had on the application of the securities or security as are directed by the first section of this act.

Any judge may grant further time until meeting of court, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That until the next term of the county court in any county of this state, after the passage of this act, any judge of said court, upon the application of any of the parties above mentioned for the benefit of the provisions herein before contained, may pass an order granting the same to said applicant, to be in force until the next term of the court of the proper county, which order, before any proceedings are had under the same, shall be deposited with the clerk of said county.

CHAPTER 80.

AN ACT, entitled a further SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for regulating the mode of Staying Executions, and for other purposes.

SEC. 1. Authorized justices of the peace to issue execution on judgment superseded under 1819, ch. 162, which was of a temporary character.

SEC. 2. Relates to their compensation.

Executors, &c. may supersede and stay execution.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all executors and administrators may supersede and stay execution, issued against the goods and chattels, rights and credits, of their testators or intestates respectively, in the same manner as if the said executions had issued against them in their own right, according to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement; and the form of the supersedeas to be used in such case shall be as nearly similar to the form prescribed in the said act as the circumstances of the case will admit; Provided always, that such supersedeas shall render the executors or administrators so superseding, liable to be proceeded against on the said supersedeas, in the same manner as if the debt so superseded had been his, her, or their own personal debt.

Proviso.

Supersedeas may be taken before one justice.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in cases where, by said act, a supersedeas is required to be taken before two justices, one shall hereafter be sufficient therefor.

CHAPTER 108.

AN ACT respecting the assent of Creditors to the release of Debtors under the Insolvent Laws of this State.

SEC. 1, 2. Are rendered useless by the act of 1827, ch. 70, which authorizes a discharge of an insolvent debtor without the assent of creditors.

Part of 4th section of an act repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That so much of the fourth section of the act, entitled, a further additional supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and twelve, as requires an insolvent debtor to pay over or convey to his trustee or trustees sufficient in amount to pay fifty per cent. of his debts at the time of his second application, and also so much of the said section as requires the insolvent
