

CHAPTER 158.

AN ACT relating to the Removal of Causes for Trial, within the Sixth District.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no cause, civil or criminal, removed upon suggestion from one county to another within the sixth judicial district, shall be taken up for trial, until all the business originating in the county to which such cause may be removed, ready for trial, and which shall require the intervention of a jury, shall be tried, dismissed, continued or otherwise disposed of for that term.

Causes removed not to be taken up until business originating in the county shall be tried.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerks of the counties within the judicial district aforesaid, to which causes may be removed for trial, to note upon the minutes of proceedings of the court, the day on which the court shall have disposed of the business of the county ready for trial as aforesaid, and originating therein, and to keep an account of the number of days employed in the transaction, trial, determination, or other disposition of causes so removed, and to make out and transmit to the levy court of the county from which such causes may have been removed, an account of the legal charges for attendance of the jurors, bailiffs, and other officers of court, during such term, so as aforesaid employed during the trial of such removed causes, which amount it shall be the duty of the levy court of the county where such cases originated, to levy upon the assessable property in their respective counties, to be collected as other county charges are collected, and paid over by the levy court where such causes may have originated to the levy court of the county to which such causes may be removed for trial, or to their order, to be by them paid over to the jurors, bailiffs, and other persons entitled thereto.

Clerk to note minutes of proceedings, &c.

CHAPTER 161.

AN ACT for the better regulation of Chancery Proceedings in certain cases.

See 1785, ch. 72, ante page 208.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That wherever a subpoena hath issued or shall hereafter issue from the chancery court, or from any county court exercising chancery jurisdiction, on a bill filed or to be filed in any of the said courts respectively, and such subpoena hath been or shall hereafter be duly returned summoned, as to all or any of the defendants therein named, and the defendant or defendants, or any of them so returned summoned, shall fail to appear in person or by solitor, according to the exigency of the said writ, or having so appeared shall fail to put in a good and sufficient answer on oath to the said bill, within the time or times which are or may be prescribed by the rules of the court from which

Where a subpoena has issued on a bill filed, &c. and returned summoned court authorized to enter interlocutory decree, &c.