

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said register shall, between the first day of January and the first day of March annually, deliver or send to each of the sheriffs of the several counties a list of taxes imposed as aforesaid for services hereafter to be done in the said court for persons resident of such county.

Also taxes imposed as aforesaid for services hereafter to be done.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any of said taxes shall or may be sent for collection the sheriff of any county in which the person chargeable therewith doth not reside, then upon such return being made to the treasurer of the shore he shall and is hereby directed to give information thereof to the register in chancery, who is required to send the same for collection to the sheriff of the proper county.

If taxes should be sent to sheriff of county where person chargeable doth not reside, treasurer to send the same to the proper county.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the treasurers of the respective shores shall examine the several lists of returns made to them respectively by the sheriffs of the several counties, of taxes which have not been paid since the passage of the act to which this is a supplement, and if it appear by any such returns that taxes have been sent for collection to the sheriff of any county in which the person or persons chargeable therewith did not reside, then the said treasurer shall transmit to the register in chancery a list of such persons, designating therein the county of which such person or persons is or are resident, and immediately upon the receipt of such list, the said register shall deliver or send to the sheriff of the proper county a list of such taxes, to be collected and accounted for as aforesaid.

Treasurers to examine lists returned to them, &c.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the register in chancery shall, on or before the first day of November annually, account with and pay to the treasurer of western shore all money received by him for taxes which may arise for services done in the said court for persons who do not reside within the state, a list of which the said register shall annually lay before the general assembly; and in settling such account the said treasurer shall allow to the said register a commission of four per cent. on the amount of money by him received, and also at the rate of ten cents per side for keeping an account of the taxes imposed, and for copies of the list laid before the general assembly, and sent to the several sheriffs as directed by this act, and the act to which it is a supplement.

Register to pay to treasurer all money received for taxes for services done for persons who do not reside in state, &c.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the fifth section of the act, entitled, an act for establishing and securing the salary of the chancellor, passed at November session one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, chapter seventy-six, so far as the same is inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is a supplement, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Section of former act repealed.