

receive the bond of any constable hereafter to be appointed by them, to have the following oath (or affirmation) made before some justice of the peace, endorsed thereon, to wit: 'We, A. B. and C. D. subscribing witnesses to the within bond, do make oath, (or affirmation, as the case may be,) that the obligors mentioned in said bond, did severally, in our presence, sign, seal and deliver the said bond as their act and deed for the purposes therein mentioned.'

CHAPTER 191.

A further SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act to regulate Lotteries. See original act, 1817, ch. 154, and notes thereto, ante page 673.

The 1st section of this act is superseded by 1826, ch. 268; and see also 1827, ch. 160.

The 2d section is also in collision with, and therefore virtually abrogated by 1825, ch. 210.

The 3d, 4th, and 5th sections are reprinted, although subsequent acts have been passed upon the same subject, conflicting in some aspects with these sections, but containing no positive repeal. The subsequent acts are enumerated in the note to 1817, ch. 154, ante page 673.

Monthly reports to the executive—penalty.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall, so soon as they have fixed upon the scheme of a lottery, transmit to the governor and council a copy of said scheme, there to be preserved; and all money, notes, bonds, bills and other securities received by the said commissioners in the sale of tickets, shall be by them deposited in some bank in the city of Baltimore, in the name of the commissioners, for the use and benefit of the state of Maryland; and the said commissioners shall transmit to the governor and council at the end of every month, an account of the money, notes, bills, bonds and other securities so received and deposited, or as much oftener as they shall be required by the governor and council so to do; and in case of neglect, omission or refusal of the said commissioners to deposite the money, bills, bonds, notes or other security by them received as aforesaid, or to render account and statements as herein before directed, the governor and council are hereby required to put the bond of said commissioners in suit.

Shall pay prizes—proceeds, &c.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall, after the expiration of sixty days after the conclusion of the drawing of any of said lotteries, proceed to pay on demand, to the bearer of any ticket in said lottery which may have drawn a prize, the amount of said prize, deducting therefrom such discount as may be prescribed on prizes in the scheme of said lotteries; and the said commissioners after deducting all the expenses of drawing said lottery, shall transmit an account thereof to the governor and council, and upon the same being approved and passed by the governor and council, the said com-
