

be lawful for the chancellor or the county court by whom the commission shall have been awarded, on the application by petition in writing of any heir, representative, purchaser, or other party interested, to appoint in the place of such deceased commissioners the same number of other discreet and sensible men, for the purpose of completing said trust, and every such petition shall set forth the substance of the first application, the issuing of the commission, the progress which the commissioners shall have made towards completing their trust, and the decease of a majority of the commissioners.

Another commission

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the register in chancery or the clerk of the county court, as the case may be, shall thereupon issue another commission directed to the surviving commissioner or commissioners appointed under the act to which this is a supplement, and to the commissioners appointed by virtue of this act, reciting in substance the facts set forth in said petition, and authorizing and requiring the said commissioners, or the major part of them, forthwith to proceed to the completion of the said trust, and directing them to return the said second commission together with a certificate of their proceedings annexed to the same with all convenient speed; and the said commissioners, upon receiving said second commission shall before a justice of the peace in and for the county wherein they shall respectively reside, severally make oath or affirmation, that they will well and faithfully perform the duties required of them by the said second commission without favour, partiality or prejudice, and according to the best of their judgments and understanding; and that the said justice shall certify the taking of such oath or affirmation, and annex his certificate to the said second commission.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners appointed by virtue of this act, shall have, and they are hereby vested with the same power and authority to complete the aforesaid trust, that would have been used or exercised by the commissioners appointed by the first commission.

CHAPTER 91.

* 1821, ch.
340.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act to repeal parts of the Acts of Assembly therein mentioned.

Fine for swearing.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all fines hereafter to be imposed by magistrates upon persons who profanely swear or curse in their presence, in virtue of the provisions of the act of 1723, chapter 16, shall be placed by them in the hands of the constable or constables of the hundred wherein the said offenders may reside for collection, and it shall be the duty of the said constable or constables to
