

in like manner, as they are now authorized by the act to which this is a supplement to examine executors or administrators.

Claimants neglecting.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a claim or claims, against a deceased persons estate, shall be known to the executor or administrator of such estate, and such claimant or claimants shall delay, neglect or refuse to bring in his, her or their claim or claims, legally authenticated, after notice given as directed in the thirteenth section of the eighth chapter of the act to which this is an additional supplement and within the time limited in such notice, such claimant or claimants shall be in the same situation to all intents and purposes with regard to his, her or their claims, as those whose claims are unknown to the executor or administrator, any thing contained in the act to which this is an additional supplement to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT to disseminate Literature in this State.

(* of Maryland.)
Tuition.

SEC. 1. *Be it enacted, by the General Assembly, That from and after the passage of this act, that each school, academy or college, that receives a donation in money from this state shall afford tuition in all the branches of learning taught in such school, academy or college, and shall furnish the necessary school books, free of any charge, to at least one poor child for every hundred dollars that each school, academy or college, receives from the state.

Selection of children.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustees of each school, academy or college, receiving a donation in money from this state, to select the number of children to be educated agreeably to the provisions of this act from among the poor children of the county or counties to which such school, academy, or college belongs, having due regard to the pecuniary situation of the persons so selected.

Annual return.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustees of the several schools, academies and colleges, that receive donations in money from this state, to make an annual return to the legislature of the number of poor children educated at their respective schools, academies or colleges.

CHAPTER 147.

AN ACT to repeal the fourth and fifth sections of an Act, entitled, an Act to relieve the people of this State, as far as practicable, from the evils arising from the demands made on the Banks of this State for Gold and Silver by Brokers, and to prohibit the officers of the several Banks from buying and selling Bank Notes of the Banks of this State at a less price than their nominal value, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and eighteen, chapter one hundred and ninety-one.