

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT for the permanent location of the Treasury Office for the Eastern Shore of this State.

Preamble. WHEREAS, much inconvenience is experienced by many of the public officers, and other persons having business in the treasury office for the eastern shore of the state, in consequence of the said office not being permanently established and held at some central and convenient place on the said shore; and the town of Easton, appearing to be the most convenient and central point; therefore, to remedy such inconvenience for the future,

Location. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the treasury office for the eastern shore of this state, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be permanently located and established at the town of Easton, in Talbot county, on said shore, and there to be regularly held and kept by the treasurer of said shore, for the transaction of the public business, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 35.

AN ACT relating to suits on Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, and other Negotiable Instruments.

Conditions of discharge Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, no judgment of any court of common law in this state, hereafter to be rendered in any suit, on a bill of exchange, promissory note, or other negotiable instrument, shall be reversed or in any way set aside on an appeal or writ of error; because the endorsement or endorsements of such bill of exchange, promissory note, or other negotiable instrument, may be in blank; and that such judgment shall be as good and valid to every intent and purpose, as if such endorsement or endorsements were properly filled up.

CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to provide for the more comfortable maintenance of Sick Persons confined in the several Jails of this State.

Sheriff shall provide, &c. SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the several sheriffs of this state, to provide such food and other articles for the comfort of sick persons confined in the jails of this state, as the physician appointed to attend on prisoners in jail shall deem necessary; a list of which articles shall be made out and signed by said physician.

Compensation. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the sheriffs aforesaid shall be entitled to charge their respective counties with the sum or