

respondendum against the obligor or obligors in such bond, penal or single bill who reside in the same county, and for the clerk of another county court, to docket another action, and to issue another writ of capias ad respondendum against the obligor or obligors who may reside in that county, and such judgments shall be entered as if several writs of capias ad respondendum had issued and separate actions had been brought before the passage of this act.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That when any writ of capias ad respondendum issued under the provisions of this act shall be returned cepi as to one more of the obligors and non est inventus as to the others, it shall and may be lawful for the clerk of the county court from which such writ issued, to renew the said writ against those upon whom it had not been served, and upon service of the same upon the other obligor or obligors, and return thereof, the said obligor or obligors may pray the court to consolidate the actions, and it may be lawful for the court so to consolidate the actions against all the obligors, so that no delay shall arise by reason of the consolidation; but judgment shall be entered up against the obligors last taken in virtue of the writ of capias ad respondendum, at the same term that judgment is or can be obtained against the obligor or obligors first taken as aforesaid, and in no case shall delay be occasioned to the recovery of the plaintiff by reason of the consolidation of the actions as aforesaid.

Case of writ being served on one and not on other obligor.

CHAPTER 182.

AN ACT concerning Agents and Factors.

Supplement, 1829, ch. 198.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of October next, any person or persons entrusted for the purpose of consignment or sale, with any goods, wares or merchandise, and who shall have shipped or consigned such goods, wares or merchandise, in his, her or their own name or names, and any person or persons, in whose name or names any goods, wares or merchandise, shall be shipped or consigned by any other person or persons, shall be deemed and taken to be the true owner or owners thereof, so far as to entitle the consignee of such goods, wares or merchandise, to a lien thereon, in respect of any money or negotiable security advanced or given to, or for the use of the person or persons in whose name or names such goods, wares or merchandise, shall be shipped or consigned, or in respect of any money, or negotiable security, received by him, her or them, to the use of such consignee, in the like manner, to all intents and purposes, as if such person or persons were the true owner or owners thereof; Provided, that such consignee shall not have

A consignee who ships goods to be considered owner thereof.
