

Cents.

For recording or copying all plots made by surveyors, and which may be filed in office, when so required either by law or an individual, the same fees as are by law limited and allowed to surveyors for the performance of like or similar services.

For alphabeting every instrument, proceeding, paper, or other matter, recorded in the office, and endorsing or entering thereon a certificate referring to the record, for every ten words and figures necessarily written for that purpose, and so pro rata,

1½

But this provision shall not be so construed as to extend to any alphabets or indexes made to the dockets of actions, suits or prosecutions.

For any other service, matter or thing, not herein before particularly enumerated, and for which no specific allowance may have been already made, the same fees as are herein after prescribed and allowed to the clerks of the several county courts of this state, for the like or similar services, and no more.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That from and after the commencement of the operation of this act, there shall be limited and allowed to the register in chancery, the following fees, which may arise or become due for services thereafter rendered in virtue of his office, and no more, viz.

To the register in chancery.

Cents.

For issuing under seal of office a subpœna ad respondendum, an attachment of contempt, a writ of error, an injunction, every execution or attachment on a decree, every commission, a ne exeat, a habere facias possessionem, a writ de lunatico inquirendo, a writ of sequestration, or other special writ; or any other writ or process not herein particularly enumerated; for every ten words or figures of any or either of them, and so pro rata,

1½

For the docket entry of the return of any writ or process,

5

For filing every bill or petition, every answer or plea, every demurrer, every commission and deposition, accounts, books of account, bonds, deeds, or other papers or writings referred to and made part of any bill, plea, answer, or other pleadings or process thereupon, (to be charged but once,) for each,

5

For an appearance docketed or entered of each or any individual party, complainant or defendant, whether in proper person, or by solicitor,

5

For the docket entry of every continuance, or reference, of a cause, to be charged to the party complainant or plaintiff only,

5

For the docket entry of every imparlance,

5