

	Cents
Register in chancery. For administering every oath, or affirmation, taken in court,	5
For the docket entry of every rule or motion made in writing, leave, or order of court,	5
For the docket entry of a judgment or decree,	25
For taxing and filing a bill of the costs of either party, in any cause, suit or prosecution, or in cases of land commissions, with the items or articles at large,	15
For a copy thereof, with the several items or articles at large, to be paid for only by the party requiring the same,	10
For a short copy of a decree, without seal, if expressly demanded, to be paid for by the party demanding the same,	15
For the minuting a docket entry of a prayer for an appeal, and the granting thereof by the court,	5
For the docket entry of the determination or final end of any cause, action, suit or prosecution, when the same shall have been agreed, discontinued, struck off, abated, dismissed or quashed,	5
For entering the suggestion of the death of either or any of the parties,	5
For every search made for any matter or thing above a year's standing, however remote or distant the period may be, if found,	18 $\frac{1}{2}$
For affixing the seal of the court to any certificate, transcript of proceedings, or exemplification, required by law or an individual, but not to any writ, or other process, as no allowance is intended to be made for the seal in such cases,	12 $\frac{1}{2}$
For making up and recording, in extenso, all judgments, decrees, writs of fieri facias, venditioni exponas, or other writs of execution, under or by virtue of which lands or tenements shall be seized in execution and sold, with the several returns to such writs or executions, and also all petitions, commissions, with their respective returns, and other judicial or court's proceedings, in chancery or equity, relating to lands, tenements, and other real estate, as specified and expressly required so to be recorded and made up, at full length, by the seventh section of the act of 1817, chapter 119, and in the manner therein prescribed; or in all other cases, actions, suits or prosecutions, that may be expressly directed or required, in writing, by some person or party interested therein; and also for all exemplifications of the proceedings, judgments or decrees, in all cases when a full and	