

Cents.

complete record thereof may not have been already made up, or authorized, as provided for by this act, (but in no other case whatever,) to be charged to those for whose use or benefit such services may be performed, or to those requiring the same to be done; for every ten words or figures written, and so pro rata,

1½

For recording or copying all plots made by surveyors, which may be filed in office, when so required either by law, or an individual, the same fees as are by law limited and allowed to surveyors for the performance of like or similar services.

For recording or transcribing any other matter or thing required by law, or the parties, to be recorded or transcribed, not herein before particularly enumerated, and for which no other allowance hath already been specifically made, for every ten words or figures written, and so pro rata,

1

For alphabeting every instrument, proceeding, paper, or other matter, recorded in the office, and endorsing or entering thereon a certificate referring to the record, for every ten words and figures necessarily written for that purpose, and so pro rata,

1½

But this provision shall not be so construed as to extend to any alphabets or indices made to the dockets of actions, suits or prosecutions.

For all other services, matters or things, not herein before particularly enumerated, and for which no specific allowance may have been already provided, the same fees as are herein after prescribed and allowed to the clerks of the several county courts of this state, for the like or similar services, and no more.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That from and after the commencement of the operation of this act, there shall be limited and allowed to the clerk of each county court in this state, and to the clerk of Baltimore city court, for services thereafter rendered in virtue of their respective offices, instead of the fees heretofore rated and established by law, the following fees, agreeably to the particular arrangement and classification thereof, and no more; that is to say,

To the clerks of county courts, and Baltimore city courts.

1. In prosecutions either at Law or in Equity, usually denominated 'Civil Cases.'

Cents.

For filing every declaration, pleading, order, or other paper, matter or thing, necessary or required to be filed in his office, (to be charged but once,) for each,

5

For the docket entry of every personal appearance of each individual party, whether plaintiff or defendant, appellant