

CHAPTER 17.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act relative to Justices of the Peace, and for other purposes, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and fifteen,* chapter eighty-two.

(*fourteen)

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Magistrates dockets.
That nothing contained in the original act to which this is a supplement, shall be taken or construed as to authorize the clerk of any county court in this state, to charge for the filing or recording of any magistrate's docket, or other papers that may be deposited with him as directed in first section of the original act to which this is a supplement.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, Transcript.
That nothing contained in this act shall be so taken or construed as to prevent the clerk of any county court from charging his fees for any transcript that he may be called on for.

CHAPTER 20.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act for the establishment of Vestries for each Parish in this State. 1798, ch. 24.

WHEREAS, experience has shewn that associated rectorships, as provided for by the sixteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement, are not in all cases expedient, Preamble.

Be it therefore enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Permission granted.
That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the vestry of any parish, or church, or united churches or congregations within this state, where the ministrations of two or more clergymen may be deemed necessary or convenient, to elect and call such clergymen, or any of them, either as rector, associate minister, or assistant minister, or by such other appellation as said vestry may think advisable, and designate the powers and duties to be exercised and discharged by such clergymen, or any of them.

CHAPTER 29.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for the more effectual protection of Public Worship in this State, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, chapter fifty-three.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Act of 1824, ch. 53. modified.
That so much of the second section of the original act, to which this is a supplement, as requires any justice of the peace and constable, with two or more freeholders, to seize and take possession of the forfeited property, be and the same is hereby repealed; and that it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace or constable, with one or more freeholders, to act; and that in addition to the forfeiture mentioned in the said section, any person or persons offending against the provisions of the
