

Penalty for signs at place not licensed to sell.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That no occupant of any office, room or house, not licensed to open or keep any office or other place for selling lottery tickets in this state, shall permit or suffer to be exhibited from any office, room or house, or be attached thereto, any sign board, card, notice or device, the purport of which will indicate that such office, room or house, or any other office, room or house within this state, is a place at which dealing in lottery tickets is carried on, and any person herein offending, shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars; and each and every day's continuance of such permission or sufferance, shall be considered as a complete offence, and indicted and punished accordingly.

See 1828, ch. 129.

Penalty for signs of persons not licensed.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That no person not licensed as aforesaid, shall expose or set up to public view, any sign board, card, notice or device, whereby the people of this state, or any of them, may be informed or induced to believe, that such person, or any other person, not licensed as aforesaid, is a dealer in lottery tickets, and any person herein offending shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction, shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars; and each and every day's exposure, or setting up to the public view, the prohibited subject aforesaid, shall be considered a complete offence, and indicted and punished accordingly.

See preceding note.

Penalty for advertising.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That no person shall advertise in any newspaper printed in this state, any matter, card or notice, whereby the readers of such newspaper may be informed where any ticket or tickets, parts of ticket or tickets, chance, share or any kind of interest in, or any knowledge of any lottery scheme, or class of any lottery, not authorized by the laws of this state, may be had or obtained within this state; and any person herein offending, shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars.

See preceding note.

Penalty for sign or information of lotteries not authorized.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That no person shall expose or set up to public view, any sign board, card, notice or device, whereby the people of this state, or any of them, may be informed or induced to believe that any ticket or tickets, parts of ticket or tickets, chance, share or any kind of interest, or any knowledge of any lottery scheme or class of any lottery, not authorized by the laws of this state, may be had or obtained within this state, and any person herein offending, shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars; and each and every day's exposure and setting up to public view, the prohibited subjects aforesaid, shall be considered a complete offence, and indicted and punished accordingly.
