CHAPTER 50.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act for the Amendment of the Law, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and eleven, chapter one hundred and sixty-one.

See original law, and 1829, ch. 166.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Persons arrested and permitted to go at large, may be again arrested, &c.
That it shall and may be lawful for any sheriff, or other officer, who shall have lawfully arrested any person in virtue of any attachment or capias, and permitted such person to go at large after such arrest, at any time before or on the return day of such attachment or capias, or during the term of the court to which the same is or shall be returnable, again to arrest such person in virtue of the same attachment or capias, for the purpose of producing such person before the court, judge or justice, before whom such capias or attachment shall be returnable; and such second arrest shall be as available and justifiable in law as the original or first arrest, and the officer making such second arrest, shall have the same power and right to detain or hold to bail the person so arrested, as he had, or could have had, in virtue of the first service of such capias or attachment, any thing in any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if such sheriff or officer shall produce the body of such person, so arrested, on the return day of such attachment or capias, or during the term of the court to which the writ is or may be returnable, then and in such case the said sheriff, or other officer, shall not be liable for any intermediate escape, and such sheriff or other officer, shall in such cases, be taken and adjudged to have complied with the said attachment or capias, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and if such sheriff or other officer, shall be sued for an escape in any such cases; such sheriff, or other officer, may give this act in evidence under the general issue. On producing body on return day, sheriff not liable, &c.
