

tate or interest therein devised to them jointly, if any one or more of such trustees, shall, in writing, signed by him or them, and attested by a witness, relinquish or disclaim such trust, or refuse to act as a trustee under such will, and deliver such writing to the register of wills having charge of the said will to be recorded, the right of such trustee or trustees so relinquishing, disclaiming or refusing to act, shall thereupon cease and be forever determined; and the remaining trustee or trustees, who shall assent to act, shall be as fully empowered and entitled to execute the trusts under such will, and to make all deeds, and do all other acts necessary for that purpose, as if the trustee or trustees so relinquishing, disclaiming, or refusing to act, had died, and the trustee or trustees assenting to act had survived him or them; and no such relinquishment, disclaimer, or refusal to act, by any trustee, shall be construed to release or injure his right or claim to any devise, legacy or bequest, devised or bequeathed to him in or by such will for his own use, unless such devise, legacy or bequest, shall be expressly declared in the will to be as a compensation for his services in acting as trustee.

CHAPTER 182.

AN ACT to reduce into one the several Acts relative to the times of holding the Court of Appeals, and the several County Courts in this State, and for other purposes.

Time of holding court of appeals.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the court of appeals shall be holden for the western shore, at the city of Annapolis, on the second Monday in June and first Monday in December in each and every year; and that the court of appeals shall be holden for the eastern shore, at the town of Easton, on the first Monday in June and third Monday in November in each and every year.

Judge residing in second judicial district to attend court for eastern shore, &c.

SEC. 2. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the judges of the court of appeals, or any of them, except the judge of the said court resident of the second judicial district, to attend the said court to be holden for the eastern shore on the third Monday in November in each and every year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the said court, resident of the said district, to attend the said court to be holden as aforesaid in the month of November in each and every year, who shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, returned to the said court, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing, trial, or decision of such suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, and to call executions, or to enter them not called by consent; and at each and every such November sessions of the
