

DECEMBER, 1829.—CHAPTER 31.

* 1805, ch. 110. A further additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors.

Costs. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for any county court, in which a petition for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state may be depending, upon the answer of any insolvent debtor to interrogatories exhibited, or upon the trial of any issue or issues by a jury upon any allegations which may be filed against him, or upon the continuance of such petition to any term subsequent to that to which such interrogatories may be exhibited or allegations filed, to award to the creditor or creditors exhibiting such interrogatories or filing such allegations, or to the petitioner, his or their reasonable costs, in like ample manner as they are now authorized to do, in all other cases depending in said courts.

CHAPTER 32.

* 1820, ch. 191. A further SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act to amend and reduce into one system the Laws to Direct Descents.

Provisions extended. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of the twenty-ninth section of the act of assembly, entitled, an act to amend and reduce into system the laws to direct descents, be, and they are hereby extended to all cases in which any person or persons may have or shall hereafter become the purchaser or purchasers of, or in any other manner become entitled to, the undivided interest and estate of the heirs, or any one of them, of any person who may have died, or shall hereafter die intestate, seized of real estate in the manner contemplated by the act to which this is a further supplement.

CHAPTER 38.

AN ACT to repeal a part of the Act, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, chapter fifty-seven.

Repeal. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act of assembly, entitled, an act respecting the punishment of criminals, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, chapter fifty-seven, as authorizes and directs the sale at public auction of any person committed for non-payment of any penalty, fine or forfeiture, be, and the same is hereby repealed.
